BIG LEAGUE CUT: CLUBS WILL FIGHT

TV man gets the big job

A former production manager of Channel 7 in Brisbane will get the $16,000-a-year job as manager of the national league which will start next March.

He is John Franck, who was with Channel 7 for about seven years and who played a key part in organising the "Roller Game" on national television.

His appointment won't be announced officially until the ASF executive meets on July 9.

Franck will be involved in organising a mid-week television programme on the 0-10 network, similar to "The Big Match" from England.

The programme will show 45 minutes of highlights from national league games and will be screened in Melbourne, Sydney, Adelaide and Brisbane.

Mooroolbark, Essendon up in arms

Trouble is brewing over the decision to admit only three instead of four Victorian clubs to the national league.

The decision was made at the Australian Soccer Federation's national league sub-committee meeting in Sydney last Friday.

The meeting ruled that there would be five clubs from NSW, three from Victoria, two from South Australia and two from Queensland.

Seven Victorian clubs have applied for membership of the national league — Hellas, Alexander, J.U.S.T., Sunshine, Essendon Lions, Mooroolbark and George Cross.

ASF president Sir Arthur George and national league sub-committee member Alex Pongrass will visit Melbourne this week to interview officials of the seven clubs before recommending which three should be accepted.

Essendon Lions manager Tony Vrzina was contacting Sunshine, Mooroolbark and George Cross this week to have them join Lions in boycotting the talks with Sir Arthur George and Alex Pongrass.

Mr Vrzina accused the ASF of having already made up its mind to accept Hellas, Alexander and JUST from Victoria.

He said the Vicorian member of the national league sub-committee, Sam Papasavas of Hellas, should have fought harder for extra Victorian places in the national league.

"He should have opposed NSW all the way, even to the extent of walking out of the meeting," Mr Vrzina said.

"I feel Victoria has been let down by the big three clubs.

"Therefore the remainder should stick together and look to their own interests at the VSF's annual meeting."

Never again will Olympic Park see a team like it. Actually, it's only part of the team. The others were probably at the pub.

Who are they? None other than the Press XI . . . er, eight (nine including the photographer), . . . also known as the Press Pythons or Paper Tigers.

They were training for their match against the Victorian referees at Olympic Park on July 7.

The wrong Hobson

"Soccer Action" made a boo-boo in issue 20 when we said former George Cross goalkeeper Norm Hobson had been appointed coach of Ringwood Wilhelmina.

Actually Norm Hobson IS the new coach of Ringwood — but it's a different Norm Hobson — one who came here from Shrewsbury in England to join Mooroolbark, and who never played for George Cross.

Ringwood's Norm Hobson was injured in the [illegible] Mooroolbark, and almost immediately hung up his boots. He then became coach of Croydon City before switching to Ringwood a few weeks ago.

The Norm Hobson of George Cross has pointed out that our mistake caused him embarrassment in his job and we apologise for it.

Hobson retired from soccer after he was seriously injured while playing for Victoria against AS Roma at Olympic Park on May 29.

ARGENTINA v. SPAIN ON RADIO

For the first time in Australia, a soccer game will be broadcast live on radio in the Spanish language, on Saturday, July 3, at 3pm from the Fitzroy Cricket Ground.

The game is between Spanish club Burnley, sponsored by Casa d'Espana, and West Melbourne, sponsored by the Argentinian Centre of Victoria.

Both clubs play in the East Division of the District League. West Melbourne (The Gauchos) are on top of the table and Burnley (Los Chavales) are in fourth place.

The match will be broadcast live by 3EA, Radio Ethnic Australia (1120 on the dial), from 3pm on Saturday.

Burnley, seven years old, wears the international Spanish colors — red shirts, blue shorts and red socks.

West Melbourne, which is in its first season of competition, wears Argentina's national colors: white shirts with blue stripes, black shorts and blue socks.

The likely teams are:

BURNLEY: Saavedra, F. Calle, Vizioli, Gangemi, Matzinez, Guimarey, Iglesias, Giminez, Letran, J. Calle, Garrido. Coach: E. Ecija.

WEST MELBOURNE: Romano, Suarez, De Paul, Lamari, Valeijos, Moyano, Ventricci, Rodriguez, Fernandez, Berbis, Cruentes. Coach: E. Sanchez.

Bell and Mackay the leaders

Who would have thought at the start of the season that Pan Hellenic's young defender Richie Bell would have a chance of winning a League best player award?

The former NSW under 16 representative is now a vital member of the national team and he's leading in the Yugoslav Airlines Player of the Year voting.

Bruce Stowell, also of Pan Hellenic, is hot on Bell's heels.

The best player in Sydney and the best in Melbourne will each be given a trip to Europe by Yugoslav Airlines.

Former World Cup player Jimmy Mackay of Hellas leads the Melbourne voting just ahead of Mooroolbark midfielder Dave Rigby.

Others in the running are Jim Tansey of Slavia and Joe Palinkas of J.U.S.T.

Team line-ups made up of the highest vote-getters in the various player positions look like this:

Standard recovers

By RON DARLINGTON

After the excitement of the previous weeks Black Douglas Cup round, last weekend's round of league championship fixtures was far from an anti-climax, with top of the table clashes in most divisions.

The match of the round between Division 1 leaders Cartro and second placed Standard A.S.T. lived up to expectations.

Cartro played their usual cool, methodical game to take a 2-0 lead before the interval.

Standard, knowing it was all or nothing, made two changes at half time.

Cartro then had to reorganise their back line after one player was injured and Standard took full advantage to score two goals in the second half, which made it a fair result on the day.

Both McColl Dynamo 'A' and Pegasus took full advantage of this draw to close the gap at the top of the table.

McColl had a comfortable win over Tarax in a game that was not helped by a greasy surface but Pegasus left it late against the unpredictable Repco Richmond side. Down 1-0 at the interval Stephan Eus made it 1-1 in the second half and then got the winner three minutes from time.

Bowater Scott came from behind twice to win their match against Kodak United. A flurry of goals in the fist half saw them a goal down twice in five minutes but three goals after the interval won the game for them.

Ford Falcons continue to run away with Division 2. This time it was Wills who felt the Falcons power in a game that was spoiled to some extent by the strong wind. Who will accompany them into Division 1 is anybody's guess.

Sperry Vickers continue to plug away and this week won their fifth match out of nine by the odd goal to stay in second place, Cadbury 'A' being the victims.

A.C.I. Box Hill had a bit of luck for once and beat Public Works 'A' with an 89th minute goal scored from a corner.

Siemens 'A' made it two wins in a row by beating third place Middle Park V.R.I. 'A' and Philip Moris climbed above A.N.Z. Bank 'A' by beating them 2-0 despite failing with a penalty kick.

The top two met in Division 3 and couldn't decide who was the better team.

Diecraft took the lead just before half time but T.A.A. equalised soon after the resumption but couldn't consolidate and Diecraft gradually got on top.

The last 20 minutes was all Diecraft but bad shooting and bad luck combined to prevent them registering the victory they deserved.

Diecrafts slip allowed Ansett to creep into second place on goal average, their 5-1 margin over Taxation just being enough to do the trick.

I.B.I., leading 2-1 at the interval, hung on to beat Rowntree-Hoadley despite having a player sent off just after half time.

Another team with 10 men was L.E.T.S. but theirs was caused by a player shortage and they still managed to beat Ford United 5-1.

Division 4 East has a new leader in Fibre Containers whose 4-0 win over Siemens 'B' maintained their excellent goal average and moved them above McColl Dynamo 'B' who drew with Reyrolle United.

Linatex kept their fourth position with a win over a depleted Cadbury 'B' side and Caulfield Spears had a good win over Middle Park V.R.I. 'B'.

There are usually plenty of goals about when Fibremakers play, their nine league outings have seen 67 goals, or over 7 per match.

SPAIN

Atletico Madrid won the Spanish Cup, beating Real Zaragoza 1-0 in the final with a first-half goal from captain Jose Garate.

Asians in Yugoslavia

Garate, with a brilliant diving header from Salcedo's cross in the 25th minute, settled a scrappy final marred by a series of ugly fouls from both sides.

Three players were booked — Diarte and Heredia of Zaragoza and Eusebio of Atletico Madrid, who were beaten on post-match penalties by Real Madrid in last season's final.

WEST GERMANY

Hamburg SV won the West German Cup beating Kaiserslautern 2-0 in the final.

Nogly (22 min) and Bjoernmose (37 min) scored the goals. A crowd of 60,000 spectators watched the match played in blistering heat.

'We can make it hard for them'

"We can make it hard for the national league," Mr Vrzina said.

"The new State League in Victoria and the new First Division in NSW will comprise many strong clubs with good support.

"What's to stop us from playing our own interstate series every year?j"

Mooroolbark secretary Malcolm Jones said it was "unreal" of the ASF to reduce Victoria's national league representation from four to three.

"We were told all along by the ASF officials that Victoria would get four places in the league," Mr Jones said.

"Mooroolbark was the first Victorian club to apply, and we came up with one of the strongest proposals.

"Has it not been for Mooroolbark, none of the Victorian clubs would have applied.

"Therefore, we deserve one of the three places in the national league."

Mr Jones said that Croydon City Council had guaranteed Mooroolbark a ground on a 120-acre sports complex to be built adjacent to the Dorset Gardens Hotel in Croydon.

Croydon City soccer club would also be involved in the plan.

Mooroolbark and its sponsors would build a grandstand for between 15,000 and 20,000 spectators.

Mr Jones said it was expected that Hawthorn Australian Rules club would eventually move to the complex as well.

Wally Elms, a patron of Mooroolbark and managing director of the Dorset Gardens hotel, will soon put to Croydon council a plan to build a $1 million sportsmen's club adjacent to the new sports complex.

Mr Jones said Mooroolbark could get $50,000 sponsorship from individuals and companies for each of the next three years.

"Mooroolbark is also the only purely Australian club to have applied for national league membership," Mr Jones said. "Mooroolbark is an Aboriginal word meaning land of the red soil."

He said Mooroolbark was currently negotiating for three English players with international experience.

He added the club was having a membership drive and hoped to have signed about 2500 members within 12 months.

Hellas president Sam Papasavas, who sat on the national league sub-committee in Sydney, said:

"Five clubs from NSW had already been admitted.

"The whole thing could have collapsed had we insisted on four from Victoria."

"And after all, Victoria is the State that came in last. It would have been unfair for us to be given preference over the clubs that pioneered this league."

The meeting accepted a motion by Mr Papasavas calling for strong efforts to be made to increase the league to 14 or 16 clubs after the first year.

The meeting was told that a major company — believed to be Rothmans — had guaranteed to pay the air fares of the national league clubs and that several other companies were interested in sponsoring individual clubs.

Pan Hellenic will enter the league as Sydney Olympic if it succeeds in getting sponsorship from Olympic Airways.

Mr Papasavas said Hellas hoped to be sponsored by Patra, the fruit juice company, which has already given Hellas $20,000 over the past two and a half years.

The recommendations made by the national league sub-committee will go to the ASF executive meeting on Friday, July 9.

The NSW clubs in the national league are: St. George, Hakoah, Marconi, Pan Hellenic and Western Suburbs.

J.U.S.T., Hellas and Alexander will almost certainly be the Victorian representatives.

Interviews for Adelaide and Brisbane clubs will take place in Sydney, and in both cases three applicants have to be whittled down to two.

Adelaide front runners are Juventus and Hellas Adelaide United, a composite entrant, has also applied.

The Brisbane clubs interested are Brisbane Lions, Brisbane City and Brisbane United, which represent St George Souths and Merton Easts interests.

Unsuccessful applicants were Sutherland and Bankstown (Sydney), Wollongong City, Newcastle (an entry made by the Cardiff club), Perth (WA Soccer Federation) and Canberra (ACT Soccer Federation).

There is widespread regret that Sydney premier APIA Leichhardt has foregone the chance of applying.

This must have put strong pressure on the club's players, most of whom are expected only to be happy if they play in the Premier league.

International Jimmy Rooney, soon to marry a Melbourne girl, is almost certain to shift to a Melbourne national league club.

He is likely to be followed by other former Victorians Billy Rogers (ex-Sunshine and Melbourne) and Rob McGinn (ex-Wilhelmina).

The sub-committee meeting in Sydney also empowered Sir Arthur George to conclude sponsorhip and television arrangements by July 9.

Television cover is expected to be in the form of a 45-minute session of edited highlights.

Clubs will meet in Sydney on July 23 to determine their four delegates to assist running of the league.

Whilst the league structure provides that four club delegates, four ASF Delegates and the chairman administer its operations, the day-to-day arrangements will be in the hands of the club representatives, the manager and ASF Secretary, Mr Brian Le Fevre.

Kosmina's big chance against Italian Army

SYDNEY: — Nineteen year old Adelaide striker John Kosmina could earn himself a permanent berth in the Australian team with another good showing against the touring Italian Army team at Sydney Sports Ground tonight (Wednesday).

Kosmina made his debut for Australia against Italian side Bologna in Adelaide and coach Jim Shoulder was impressed by the teenager's efforts.

The Australian team could be the basis of the final Socceroo squad, with the possible exception of Gary Byrne ahead of vice-captain Jim Rooney.

Byrne has been brought into the side by Shoulder in a move described to "keep everybody sharp".

The team selected today is:

The Italian Army team arrived in Sydney on Sunday for its five-match tour, including two games against Australia.

After tonight's game the soldiers have games against Wollongong City (July 2), the Adelaide side Juventus (July 4), Australia in Melbourne (July 7) and Sydney's APIA-Leichhardt (July 9).

Before starting their military service several members of the touring party were with Italian First Division teams.

The Italians have had an outstanding run of success in European military tournaments in recent years, with victories against Greece, Belgium, Turkey, France, Portugal, Spain, and West Germany.

The squad includes: Franco Tancredi: age 21 from Milan, goalkeeper, heir apparent to great Albertosi; Leopoldo Fabris; age 25 from Varese, goalkeeper; Giacomo Chinellato, age 23 from Modena, defender; Pathrizio Sala, age 21 from Torino, midfielder, International B versus Germany; Graziano Bini; age 21 from Inter, defender, international B and Under 23, national A candidate; Bruno Conti; age 21 from Roma, midfield/striker; Roberto Pruzzo; age 21 from Genoa, striker; Vincenzo D'Amico; age 22 from Lazio, midfielder; Claudio Desolati; age 21 from Fiorentina, striker, international B team; Luigi Punziano; age 21 from Naples defender; Pier Mosti, age 21 from Genoa defender; Danilo Ferrari, age 21 from Ternana defender; Domenico Maggiora, age 21 from Varese club, midfielder; Adelmo Paris; age 22 from Brescia midfielder.

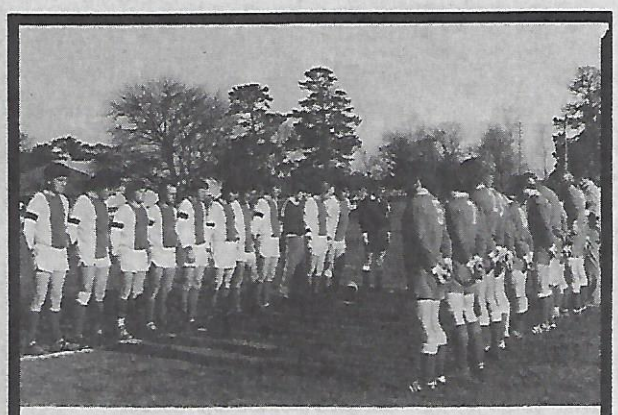
North may go south

The NSW First Division may include two Newcastle teams and possibly one from Canberra to fill the gaps left by clubs going into the national league.

There will be at least four vacancies after St. George, Wests, Hakoah, Marconi and Pan Hellenic leave the First Division to join the NSL.

It is not yet known whether the new First Division will comprise 10 or 12 clubs.

Manly wants to stay in the First Division, even if it finishes last this year, but according to the NSW Federation president, Peter McCann, this would be unfair.



TRIBUTE TO CASEY

Players and officials from the Berwick City and Karingal clubs pay respect to Lord Casey.

Berwick City lost its Number One member with the death of former Australian Governor-General Lord Casey.

Berwick City, which competes in the South Division of the District League, wore black armbands for its match against Karingal at Akoonah Park on Sunday, June 20.

Earlier this year Berwick City ran the Lord Casey Soccer Cup competition for district schools and it was won by Hallam.

Berwick beat Karingal 2-0, and was well led by player-coach George Linardos who scored the side's first goal direct from a corner kick.

Other good players were Brian Wright, Guy Beesley and Allan Barlow.

Best in the reserve side which drew 1-1 were Steve Petrovitch, Terry Jones, Barrie Hare, Jan Oosterbeek and Phil Redhead.

Oceania Cup is postponed

SUVA, The Oceania soccer tournament due to be held in Fiji in September has been postponed.

The Oceania Confederation treasurer, Sashi Singh, told a meeting of the Fiji Football Association Council that the Oceania Secretary, Charlie Dempsey, had telephoned him to say the tournament would be played next year instead.

New Zealand had earlier requested postponement of the tournament because it wants to concentrate on its World Cup qualifying games.

Girls need sponsors

Victoria will host this year's Australian Women's Soccer Association championship.

The championship, in which all States will compete, will be held between August 26 and 31.

The two grounds on which games will be played are Schintler Reserve, Footscray, and probably Polonia's ground, Maribyrnong Reserve.

The VWSA urgently needs sponsors to support the championship.

If the State Federations and large companies fail to back the tournament, the girls will have to pay out of their own pockets.

Credit to officials

Soccer officials come in for a fair bit of stick during their time — some of it justified, some of it not.

But those responsible for Australia's current World Cup build-up deserve a pat on the back.

Sure it's still a long way from ideal, but under our part-time semi-pro set-up the 1978 Socceroos are being offered every opportunity to succeed.

In the past seven months our Socceroos have met teams from Russia, Yugoslavia, New Zealand, China, England, Italy and Scotland.

And with the proposed European tour at the end of the year, this will give our team not only much-needed matches but also games against teams of differing styles and backgrounds.

Our national team has already played more matches in the past seven months than it played in the entire period from 1964-1970.

All this augurs well for our chances in next year's elimination matches and those responsible should take a large part of the credit should the Socceroos succeed.

Another pleasing feature of the national team's recent performances has been the inclusion of several younger stars.

At the beginning of this season I wrote in "Soccer Action" that I thought Richie Bell, Mark Jankovic and Rene Colusso were three young stars ready to make their mark.

Bell and Jankovic have done just that whilst Colusso is still playing in Italy.

Bell and Jankovic appear certain to be squad members at least and the experienced gained even at that level will be invaluable to two players sure to be the backbone of our team for the 1982 World Cup challenge.

☆ ☆ ☆

I have just returned from a week's coaching/promotion in Alice Springs where surprisingly the "young" soccer game is fast making inroads into what was almost exclusively an Australian Rules centre.

Number-wise, soccer almost rivals Rules, however the enthusiasm is not matched by the same standard in soccer.

To assist, Alice Springs requires competition at junior level and any junior team wishing to travel for "a trip in a lifetime to the Centre" they should contact the Alice Springs Soccer President, Box 1318, P.O., Alice Springs, N.T.

WESTS LACK SCORERS

ST GEORGE 3 (Aitken 2, Morgan), WESTERN SUBURBS 1 (Eaton)

St George ran Western Suburbs off their feet in the first half to lay the foundations for their comfortable 3-1 victory at Hurstville Oval.

Western Suburbs coach Archie Blue continued with his experiment of playing former St George forward Alan Ainslie at left fullback but this move ultimately proved the downfall of his side.

The match began at a fast pace but quickly degenerated into a mediocre contest full of errors, poor team work and sloppy passing from both sides.

Concentrating on attacking through the left hand side, St George began to open up the Wests' defence despite the strong work of Australian captain Peter Wilson.

A well flighted freekick by St George's Doug Utjesenovic was headed home by Fred Aitken in the 12 minute and four minutes later Aitken was again on hand to take advantage of some loose marking to net his second goal.

Wests then seemed to lose interest in the match and five minutes before halftime Neville Morgan rose high over the defence to head home St George's third goal and give them a match winning lead.

The second half was a continuation of the poor quality soccer shown in the first 45 minutes, and although Clivie Eaton managed a consolation goal for Wests nine minutes from fulltime, his team never really looked capable of worrying the competent St George defence.

Both Fullback Utjesenovic and mid fielder Brendan Grosse stood out for St George and their neat passing continually created opportunities at the front.

If not for Wilson in the backline and David Harding in the midfield, Wests could well have suffered a greater defeat.

They desperately need forwards who can score goals with the chances which Harding is creating for them.

MATCH OF THE WEEK

McQuire saves APIA'S record

APIA 1 (Wilson), PAN HELLENIC 0

Goalkeeper David McQuire's brilliance kept APIA's unbeaten record intact in a sternly fought 1-0 victory over Pan Hellenic at Lambert Park.

McQuire, his left ankle heavily strapped, pulled off three outstanding saves before a near capacity crowd of 6,611.

APIA have now played 14 Premiership matches without loss and is still the team to catch in the race for the title.

APIA, however, faded in a hectic second half.

Their midfield trio Jim Rooney, nursing a leg injury, Billy Rogers, who has been suffering from the flu, and Willie Wallace lost their grip on the match.

McQuire three times robbed Hellenic of an equaliser they probably deserved on the run of play after the interval.

First he dived to his right to grasp Bill Kardambis' shot.

Five minutes later he, rather fortunately, was on hand to snatch a rebound from his upright and then he plunged at Brian Parker's feet when Parker had broken clear.

The action was thick and fast as APIA — heavily caned by referee Peter Rampley — strove to hold Pan Hellenic.

Rampley won no friends among the APIA fans, but his firm handling helped to control some vigorous tackling on both sides.

MARCONI AND WESTS — BATTLE ROYAL

A battle royal. That's what the stage is set for on Saturday when Marconi-Fairfield tackle Western Suburbs on their home ground Marconi Oval on Saturday.

After the ignominious draw against Manly last weekend, Marconi will be determined to assure their place in the top four — a place which could become very shaky if Wests get up.

On the other hand there is Wests, who still have a game in hand, needing every point they can from here on in to clamber into the top four.

Marconi coach Rale Rasic was not too happy at allowing Saints to get the better of his side in the closing minutes 10 days ago, and Manly's shock draw last weekend could see pruning in Rasic's line-up.

And whether Wests coach Archie Blue will persist with playing striker Alan Ainslie at left back after last weekend's loss to Saints remains to be seen.

Hakoah-Eastern Suburbs also have cause for concern next weekend when they meet Saints at Hurstville Oval on Sunday.

Hakoah's place in the top four is none too secure, and it will need a big effort from George Keith's men to hold Saints.

Premiership leaders APIA play Granville at Garside Park and while Granville are playing far better football lately, they are unlikely to end APIA's dream run.

Pan Hellenic, still a top four chance, should remain in the running after meeting South Sydney at Wentworth Park while Wollongong City should have too much power for Auburn at Berkeley Sports Ground.

Sutherland, at home to Manly at Seymour Shaw Park, on paper look too strong with John McDonald back, but would do well to remember Marconi's lesson.

Manly scores

MANLY 1 (Cole), MARCONI-FAIRFIELD 1 (Keddie)

Marconi were given the fright of the season in their 1-1 draw with bottom-of-the-table Manly at Inmau Park.

The competition point was only Manly's second of the season following their 1-1 draw with Pan Hellenic.

Marconi's goal came in the first minute of play with great lead-up work by Mike Micevski.

In the 15th minute, from a determined Manly attack and a slack Marconi defence, tall Manly forward Malcolm Cole gathered a loose ball and slammed it past Marconi's international goalie, Allan Maher.

Manly continued with their eager and progressive play in the second half and had Marconi floundering under the pressure.

Marconi launched spirited attacks on the Manly goal and were unlucky when Keddie hit the crossbar in the 78th minute.

Even Marconi's experienced World Cup players Ray Richards and Ern Campbell found the eager and youthful Manly side a problem.

Manly were getting great service from their midfielders Vince Jackson and Ken Mallam and their combination with Cole completely harrassed the Marconi defenders.

It is a pity this Manly side is headed for relegation on the performance they gave today against third place-getters on the table and possible semi-finalists, Marconi.

GRANVILLE WINS

GRANVILLE 2 (Borwick, Selfridge), AUBURN 1 (Deller)

A goal two minutes from the end by fullback Henry Selfridge gave Granville a 2-1 win over neighbouring Auburn at Mona Park.

Auburn held the upper hand in the first half and led 1-0 at the break, but Granville came back strongly after the interval to take the points.

Bad finishing cost Granville an early lead when centre-forward Stan Marshall shot wide with an empty net at his mercy in the 15th minute.

Let off the hook, Auburn made several attacking moves, with midfielders Kevin Dobson and Gary Fairclough prominent in the lead-up work.

Winger Eddy Reid took the ball on the left flank, crossing it into the goalmouth for Deller to hit it into the net from five metres.

After the interval Auburn twice came close to scoring but Granville's goalkeeper Steve Watson kept them out with some acrobatic saves.

Granville kept the pressure on until a 50-metre curling shot by fullback Selfridge deceived goalkeeper Paul Griffin and flashed into the top left-hand corner of the net.

Finals places fades

HAKOAH-EASTERN SUBURBS 1 (Barnes), WOLLONGONG CITY 1 (Beggs).

Hakoah's chances of a semi-final berth took another plunge at Wentworth Park when they could only draw 1-1 with a disappointing Wollongong City.

Brazilian winger Hilton Silva sped along the left touchline and his pinpoint cross was placed home by Murray Barnes with a fine header from six metres.

However, after the break, the game changed dramatically and neither team took any chances playing cautiously from mid-field.

Wollongong City's prodigal son, Bob Fryer, on loan from Wests, thought he had scored the winner three minutes after half-time but his superb volley from 12 metres was disallowed because of a dubious offside decision.

Hakoah failed to impress, playing extremely cautiously against the lowly-rated City side and it is hard to see how they will be able to pick up more than one point from the next three games against St George, Wests and Marconi.

As for Wollongong, they seldom used their deadly weapon — Phil O'Connor on the left wing — relying upon Fryer's sorties up the middle.

Tongue lashing

SUTHERLAND 3 (Herron 2, Walker), SOUTH SYDNEY 2 (Sullivan, Kovacic)

A half-time tongue lashing from coach Pat Hughes and the midfield inspiration of tiny John McDonald lifted Sutherland to a 3-2 win over South Sydney at the Marks Field on Saturday.

Sutherland, with McDonald, Alan Bourke and Gerry Walker giving them virtually full control of the midfield, squandered several golden opportunities to be held 1-1 at the break.

But following a lecture from Hughes, striker Jimmy Herron changed from cold to hot to tighten up his game and figure handsomely in Sutherland's improved showing.

Having missed several early chances, Sutherland found themselves trailing when a header from Souths winger Maurice Sullivan found the net.

But it was Herron, repeatedly caught in the offside trap being sprung by Souths, who managed to land the equaliser, lobbing the ball in from an Alan Griffith cross.

In all Herron went on to figure in all three of Sutherland's goals, making the second with a solo run and a cross for Walker and then combining again with Griffith to notch his second.

HELLAS MEN CUT LOOSE

MATCH OF THE WEEK

HELLAS 5 (Cummings 51st., Ollerton 66th., Hagegmanouil 72nd., Armstrong penalties 78th., and 85th.) MAKEDONIA 2 (Bernard 41st., McIntyre 42nd.).

HELLAS: Kennedy; Pye, Xanthopoulos, Walker, Kalafatides, (injured, sub. Andrews half time); Daperis, Mackay, Armstrong; Cummings, Hagegmanouil, Ollerton.

MAKEDONIA: Laumets; Trajkovski, McCracken, Campbell (sent off 74th), Petrovski; McIntyre, Bernard, Fox; Jones, Calabrese, Beech.

Hopefully Hellas now realises that the leisurely tippy-tappy stop -and- push style it has used against "weaker" teams, is not only unattractive to spectators, but also downright dangerous.

Hellas played that way in the first half against Makedonia last week, and as a result it trailed 0-2 at the interval.

Its style changed completely after the break. The team played at full speed, players lunged at the ball, others ran free calling for it, and crosses and passes were played first-time.

That brand of soccer produced five second-half goals, and there could have been more.

If Hellas played that way all the time, the spectators, and the club which has forked out so much money this year, would get their money's worth.

On Sunday, Hellas meets Hakoah, one of those socalled "weak" teams against which the Hellas men usually play their worst soccer.

Hakoah is a little stronger than Makedonia, but even so, there's no reason why Hellas shouldn't score at least three.

The men behind Hellas' second-half revival against Makedonia were midfielders Jimmy Mackay and Jim Armstrong and strikers Peter Ollerton and Margaritis Hagegmanouil.

Armstrong's long, cross-field passes and forward lobs were absolutely brilliant. Who would have imagined this all-time great goalscorer of the State League as a midfielder?

Makedonia, which crumbled under Hellas' pressure in the second half, had its task made even more difficult when centre back Frank Campbell was sent off the field in the 74th minute.

The send-off was over a foul on Hagegmanouil. Under ordinary circumstances, it would have earned Campbell a yellow card, but he had already been shown one for a foul on Ollerton.

Makedonia was doing a lot of fouling in the second half — probably as a result of frustration.

The team paid dearly for it. Campbell was outed and Hellas scored two penalties.

The first half was even until Makedonia scored. Jim McCracken had a tight hold on Ollerton. Peter Laumets moved strongly and confidently in goal and John Bernard was busy and constuctive in midfield, in his first game since switching from Sunshine City.

All the attention given Ollerton during this period gave Hagegmanouil more room than he had a right to expect, so he was able to figure in the few attacks Hellas had.

In the 41st. minute, Bernard lined up a free kick at the edge of the penalty area. He picked his mark and side-footed the ball into the top of the net.

A minute later Bill McIntyre got his foot to another shot by Bernard, to change its direction and fool goalkeeper John Kennedy.

That was it. Makedonia had had its moment of glory.

Brian Edgley's tongue was like a scalpel in the Hellas dressing room, and his players responded with raw fury when they got back onto the ground.

Within three minutes of the restart, Arthur Xanthopoulos had given Hellas new confidence with a mighty shot that bounced just in front of Laumets, but went over the bar.

Makedonia had its last flurry as Argentinian newcomer Carlo Calabrese beat Xanthopoulos and shot from close range only to see Kennedy deflect the ball.

In the 56th. minute, Duncan Cumming finally came into the play, calling for the ball from Mackay.

Mackay responded by lobbing it downfield, over the defence, for Cummings to run onto.

The ball bounced in front of Cummings, the spin taking it back over his head. Cummings turned around to retrieve the ball, blocking Laumets who was coming to him.

With Laumets stranded, Cummings faced towards goal again, picked his mark and slammed it home past the defenders who had retreated back onto Laumets' line.

In the 66th. minute, Armstrong put a great lob into open space on the right, for Mike Pye to run onto. Pye crossed accurately and Ollerton headed home the equaliser.

In the 72nd. minute it was Mackay again, taking a free kick to the far post, where Ollerton headed it down and Hagegmanouil rammed it into the net to put Hellas ahead 3-2.

In the 78th. and 85th minutes Lube Petrovski fouled Hagegmanouil in the penalty area, and referee David Yelland awarded two spot kicks. Both times, Armstrong scored with great shots.

— LAURIE SCHWAB

Makedonia full back Stefan Trajkovski lifts himself up on Jim Armstrong's shoulder to clear the ball while Bill McIntyre (right) and Jim Mackay stand by.

Juventus attack looking better

POLONIA 0 JUVENTUS 0

POLONIA: Litwin, S. Klain, Jaworski, Marmur, Klimecki, Nierobisz, Lerch, Esposito (Lipiarski), van Leeuwen (Dziedzic), Herman, Dykun.

JUVENTUS: Harby, Sabadini, Baravelli, Della Rocca, Tarquinio, Marshall, Sabidussi, C. Lucchesi, Vojtek, J. Lucchesi, Kokkinos.

Polonia and Juventus, two lowly placed teams, fought out a scoreless draw at Maribyrnong on Sunday.

But Juventus can be happy with the result, because it almost turned the tables on Polonia.

A fortnight earlier on the same ground Polonia downed Juventus 1-0 to win its way through to the quarter finals of the Dockerty Cup.

It was Juventus' turn to look the better side for most of the game.

Its defence, led by Fausto Tarquinio and Pat Della Rocca was supreme, and really looked like a professional outfit.

The forward line, which has been the most disappointing aspect up to date, had some life with Ulysses Kokkinos and Billy Vojtek moving well.

Polonia's Eugene Lerch was his usual commanding self and kept the team in the match.

Goalkeeper Miro Litwin was impressive and halted a few promising shots.

Juventus looked good when it counter-attacked. Some of the breakaways were really impressive.

The match was of a good standard for the wintry conditions, and it was a keenly contested game.

Late in the match Polonia went all out to try to snatch a win but it couldn't penetrate the stable Juventus defence.

— IAN BROWN

Wagstaff off to England

GEORGE CROSS 1 (Wagstaff) ALEXANDER 0.

GEORGE CROSS: Kastner, McConville, Barron, Kelly, Maitland, Walker, Ebini, Webb, Murphy, Wagstaff, Cullen.

ALEXANDER: Blasby, V. Bannon, Taylor, Nelson, Bozikas, Stogiannou, Gibson, P. Bannon, Thomson, Gillan, Cole.

George Cross has rocketed from the bottom of the ladder to be a final four contender — all in the pace of five weeks.

Englishman Ken Wagstaff has transformed George Cross into a giantkiller.

Rarely has a man done as much for a team as Wagstaff has for George Cross.

When he arrived from England, the side had lost all its four games and had a goal average of 1:12.

Since then, it's won four games, drawn one and lost one. It has scored 10 goals — five by Wagstaff — and conceded four.

He's so good that supporters of other worrying State League sides are branding the Cross a one-man team.

And whether it likes it or not, George Cross faces a test over the next two or three weeks.

Why? Becasue yesterday Wagstaff returned home to Hull City.

His trip is not solely for business reasons.

When Wagstaff returns to Melbourne, he hopes to be in the company of two players — Steven Deere of Hull and Paul O'Riley of Southport.

The new look George Cross was seen at its best when it outclassed Fitzroy Alexander at Olympic Park on Sunday.

It was a "grand final" atmosphere at the 71st minute when tall Peter Ebini and Wagstaff combined to score the winner.

Alexander were allowed to play only as well as George Cross let it.

Wagstaff played the role of general, directing his players into position.

Overall he did a good job but it was impossible to expect him to contain Wagstaff for the full game.

The George Cross forward line worked efficiently and Wagstaff was ably supported by Ebini, Paul Murphy and a very promising player in Robert Cullen.

Alex McConville, Kevin Kelly and Derek Barron were strong defenders.

Alexander was best served by goalkeeper Peter Blasby.

Vince Bannon got better as the game went on and regularly drove his side deep into attack.

George Gillan and Gary Cole flashed into the game but like all their team, they were patchy.

PETER SWEENEY

A late point

JUST 1 (Buljevic pen) MOOROOLBARK 1 (Vaughan pen)

JUST: Boland, Parrot, Kazi, Kriaris, Kondarios, Ilioski, Palinkas, Micic, Adamgikis, Buljevic, Ristovski.

Mooroolbark scrambled a necessary point on Sunday when it drew its away game with JUST.

But the Barkers nearly left their equalising goal too late. There were only minutes remaining when Peter Vaughan equalised from the penalty spot.

Footscray had done all the early work and should not have given the tough Mooroolbark the chance to get back into the game.

The standard of the game was high considering the wet conditions.

Mooroolbark goalkeeper Lou Ivanoff made some fine saves — particularly two in the first half from Branko Buljevic and Joe Palinkas.

Mooroolbark coach Archie Campbell reorganised his side during the first half and this conteracted a great deal of the drive that Footscray had generated.

Brian Thom and Dave Rigby were the best players, in addition to Ivanoff.

Footscray was best served by Joe Palinkas, Mendo Ristovski and defender Jim Kriaris.

The match was a close and hard one between two teams that have applied to join the National League.

Footscray seems a certainty for the interstate series, and Mooroolbark has to keep winning to dislodge either Sunshine or Alexander if it wants to have a chance of winning the premiership.

One thing is certain with both the sides — they'll have to improve greatly to worry Hellas.

— JOE MAJOR

MORE STATE LEAGUE, PAGE 14

Bye bye Sunshine

It looks like Sunshine City will say bye-bye to the top four on Sunday.

After its woeful performance against Ringwood last week, there's no reason to assume that Sunshine has what it takes to beat George Cross — even though the Cross will play without its leader, Ken Wagstaff, who is on an overseas recruiting trip.

The confidence of the George Cross players is sky-high after the team's great run. Paul Murphy, John Webb, Norm Maitland, Peter Ebini, Bob Cullen, Kevin Walker and Derek Barron have all been playing well.

Sunshine's confidence, on the other hand, must be at rock bottom after successive losses to Ringwood, J.U.S.T. and Alexander.

Mooroolbark, equal on points with Sunshine, is standing by ready to take fourth spot if Sunshine slips.

The Barkers, who held J.U.S.T. to a draw at Footscray last week, have a relatively easy game against Juventus at home in front of the GTV9 cameras on Saturday.

The Slavia v. Alexander game will be played at 8 p.m. on Friday at Olympic Park.

Slavia's defence of Les Owens, Jim Tansey, Jim O'Reilly and Frank Thompson, has been playing well enough to contain the Alexander forwards, so it could be a draw.

Polonia and Makedonia will figure in a bottom-of-the-table struggle at Maribyrnong on Sunday.

Eddy Marmur is back to help out Marian Jaworski in defence; Miro Litwin has shown great determination in goal and Eddy Kupisz should be back to strengthen the midfield even more.

Hellas should have no trouble beating Hakoah at Middle Park. Hakoah hasn't won a match for six weeks and has scored only one goal in its past four games.

Footscray J.U.S.T., as usual, was unable to combat the hard style of Mooroolbark last week, but will find it easier against Ringwood at Schintler Reserve on Sunday.

Weekend matches, with likely winners in capitals:

Friday, Olympic Park, 8 p.m. : Slavia v. Alexander (draw).

Saturday, Esther Park : MOOROOLBARK v. Juventus.

Sunday, Maribyrnong : POLONIA v. Makedonia; Middle Park: HELLAS v. Hakoah; Olympic Park: GEORGE CROSS v. Sunshine; Schintler Reserve: FOOTSCRAY J.U.S.T. v. Ringwood.

GREATS FROM THE PAST

Vero Mladenovic came to Melbourne to join Footscray J.U.S.T. in 1962 after having played for OFK Belgrade in the Yugoslav First Division.

This brilliant inside forward starred for Belgrade from 1954 to 1961.

He also played for Yugoslavia's youth team and captained Yugoslavia in the 1960 championship of students in Belgium.

His team did well to reach the final but was finally beaten by the host nation.

Although Mladenovic was already 28 when he joined J.U.S.T., he could have starred for the club much longer than he did.

In 1968 he had a cartilage removed and was out of the game for a full season.

He tried a comeback which failed and it wasn't until 1971 that he managed another season — this time with Fitzroy Alexander.

Cedo Cirkovic, a former team mate of Mladenovic's, was coaching Alexander at the time and he called on his old friend to lend a hand.

Mladenovic and former J.U.S.T. winger Milos Adamovic did the trick. Alexander avoided relegation.

That season was Mladenovic's last in State League soccer.

He then joined the J.U.S.T. committee and was appointed team manager. At the moment he is in Yugoslavia trying to recruit players.

During his spectacular career in the mid-60s Mladenovic was recognised as one of the greatest inside forwards ever seen in Melbourne.

He was an automatic selection to the State team, where he played some of his most dazzling soccer.

In 1964, the year he scored 19 goals for J.U.S.T., he potted four in Victoria's 7-1 victory over Tasmania in the Australian Representative Championship.

The same year, he scored Victoria's only goal in its 1-3 defeat by Everton. He also goaled in the State's 2-1 victory over Preussen Muenster of Germany.

In 1965, his knee began to play up and Mladenovic bowed out of representative soccer after Victoria's 0-1 defeat by Chelsea of England.

Victoria's star-studded line-up in that game was: Huhson, Shepherd, Cook, Janczyk, Rice, Micic, Mandalis (replaced by Hodgson), Anderson (Jurecki), Blue, Mladenovic, Stankovic.

Vero Mladenovic of J.U.S.T. is foiled by the George Cross goalkeeper.

JIM SHOULDER
National coach

YOU'RE NEVER TOO OLD TO LEARN

One of my biggest disappointments in soccer here is the poor response of First Division coaches and players to the national coaching scheme.

It's a pity that these people are so reluctant to take part in the courses in the various States under the regional directors.

These directors are Alan Vest in Western Australia, Dennis Ford in Tasmania, Ron Smith in Victoria, myself and the national director, Eric Worthington.

Together we are trying to enlighten people about what we are trying to do, yet in Victoria and NSW in particular, we have met with little success.

The idea is not to put people on the spot when they attend our courses, but rather to swap ideas and increase overall knowledge.

Improvement at the local level has been most evident in Western Australia and Tasmania, where senior coaches and players have taken part in our coaching courses.

Tremendous strides have been made in Tasmania under Dennis Ford and the Western Australian State team, under Alan Vest, has had some incredible results.

What's more, WA league soccer is benefiting because every First Division coach there has done our course.

A recent course in Perth was attended by 26 senior coaches and senior players.

A course in Tasmania attracted only nine people but they were all from the top level of football in that State.

Yet in Sydney and Melbourne it's a different story.

Ron Smith must have made a million telephone calls and sent out thousands of circulars to publicise the senior course run in Melbourne last summer, but the end result was very disappointing. The people who did attend were mainly from second, third or fourth division, or from the junior leagues.

In England, West Germany, Holland, Italy and I assume in the Iron Curtain countries as well, most of the top coaches have gone through the "system", have done courses and go along every year to refresher courses.

It would be interesting to count up all the national coaches from Hong Kong westward to Brazil to see how many have qualified through official courses. I bet it would be a hell of a number.

If it's good enough for them, surely it's good enough for the men in Australia.

First Division coaches and players would have a lot to gain from our senior coaching courses and, just as important, they would have a lot of knowledge to pass on to their peers.

So I urge all the First Division players and coaches to attend the next courses in Sydney (probably in December) and in Melbourne (probably in January).

The attitude in Sydney and Melbourne that these courses are somehow beneath the senior men is unrealistic.

You're never too old to learn and you never stop learning.

Any other attitude is dangerous as far as the progress of soccer in this country is concerned.

If the top people were talking and swapping ideas, it could only improve our soccer. If they stay in a corner and keep their ideas to themselves, then soccer is looking for trouble.

Of course not all First Division men have shunned our courses.

Look at this lit of top men who have taken part —

Raoul Blanco, Bruce Stowell, Mike Johnson, Joe Alagic, Dennis Yaager (all NSW), John Gardiner, Fred Bunce, Tim White (Victoria), Ross Wesson, Jock Black, Wolfgang Stuetzel and Frank Lattec (Tasmania).

Joe Alagic (above) and John Gardiner (below) have both done coaching courses.

English magazine "Shoot / Goal" recalls that 25 years ago the English FA sent to Australia a sledgehammer to crack a nut.

The magazine was referring to the FA's tour of Australia in 1951.

Included in the squad was the then-record transfer fee star Jackie Sewell. When the tourists met Victoria in Melbourne for the second time he scored all seven goals.

Four days later, an himself to two goals. Ike Clarke of Portsmouth got a hat-trick, with Bill Smith of Birmingham scoring the other goal.

By the way, the FA team's record on this tour was: 4-0 v South Coast, 8-1 v NSW, 6-2 v Metropolis in Sydney; 4-1 v Australia, 7-1 v Northn Districts, 3-1 v NSW, 5-0 v Victorian Country XI, 7-0 v Victoria, 6-1 v Australian XI, 11-0 v Tasmania, 17-0 v Tasmania, 13-1 v Australian XI, 17-0 v Australia, 7-1 v Queensland, 4-1 v Australia, 13-1 v Central Queensland, 6-1 v Australia, 5-2 v Granville-Parramatta, 5-0 v Australia and 2-0 v South Coast.

against Australia, scoring 36 goals to three.

STAR EXPERIMENT SUCCEEDS

Golden Greek Dimitri Papaiannou set the scene for a star - studded national league when he sparkled for Fitzroy Alexander against Hellas Adelaide at Olympic Park last week.

BY LAURIE SCHWAB

Papaiannou, a Greek international and all-time second-highest goalscorer in the Greek First Division, set up two of Alexander's goal in its 3-2 victory.

About 4000 people watched the game, paying $3 each, so it was a financial success for Alexander although the club paid Papaiannou a reputed $3000 for the game.

Papaiannou's guest appearance, and that of Francis Lee for St George, are seen as test cases in the plan to use top-class overseas stars in the national league scheduled to start next March.

Alexander and Hellas Adelaide will both be in the national league.

Papaiannou thrilled the crowd with his fancy footwork and brilliant shoulder-high crosses.

One of these crosses was headed home by Scottish newcomer Jim Brand in the 65th. minute, and a Papaiannou corner in the 3rd. minute was turned into a goal by Pat Bannon.

George Gillan scored Alexander's other goal, swivelling onto a short square pass from Gary Cole.

Ian McGregor equalised Bannon's early goal in the 10th. minute and giant David Pollans headed home Lucki Vagianos' cross just before the end.

Although it would not have deserved it, Hellas may have drawn the match had Nick Pantelis not missed a penalty for handball late in the second half.

Papaiannou made 16 good passes, including crosses, and six bad passes that went to opponents or were intercepted.

He had six shots at goal and three corner kicks, one of which resulted in a goal.

The game was marred by referee Stirling sending off Adelaide player Richard Yeeles just before half time, for swearing at a linesman. It was hardly justified in a friendly match.

Alexander has a good new striker in Jim Brand, the former Hamilton Academicals player who came on at half time and scored a good headed goal.

Alexander moved a lot better than Hellas, whose central defence was shaky and whose goalkeeper Sam Service also had a jittery game. It's amazing that Service uses his full back to kick in, something that's rarely seen these days.

However, Service made a good one-handed save from Cole early in the game. Cole caused the Adelaide defence a lot of trouble in the first half, but he was replaced at half time to give Brand a run.

In the 32nd. minute Cole put a short cross over for Ian Gibson to throw himself through the defence and head home but the goal was offside.

A minute before half time Papaiannou lobbed an inch-perfect ball to the feet of Gillan who failed to control it. However, he followed it to the goal line but instead of cutting it back, he tried to shoot and was blocked.

In the second half, Papaiannou thrilled the crowd by beating four men with his footwork, but his shot was too high.

Midfielder Pillans, who must be close to 7 ft. tall, and left back Vagianos, were good players for Hellas.

Gibson and Bannon were good in Alexander's midfield and strikers Gillan and Cole were always dangerous.

Papaiannou of course, was in a class of his own.

FITZROY ALEXANDER 3 (P. Bannon 3rd., Gillan 12th., Brand 65th.) HELLAS ADELAIDE 2 (McGregor 10th., Pillans 82nd.)

ALEXANDER: Blasby; V. Bannon, Nelson, Taylor, Bozikas, Rakovalis; Gibson (Millar 55th.), P. Bannon (Thompson 67th.); Gillan, Cole (Brand half time), Papaiannou.

HELLAS ADELAIDE: Service; Reynolds; Yeeles (sent off 36th min., replaced by Farkas half time); Mangakis, Vagiannis; DeLyster, Pillans, McGregor; Zervas, Pantelis, Watkins.

Referee: Stirling.

Crowd: About 4000.

Industrial hours

The Victorian Industrial League has changed its office hours.

The office, in Springvale, will now open for 13 hours a week.

The office will open between 10am and 3pm on Tuesday and Wednesday and 5pm and 8pm on Friday.

Million-dollar club backs Hellas

Hellas Adelaide will enter the national league with a million-dollar social club in Light Square, Adelaide.

Club sponsors Ellie and Peter Kristianis are setting up the club — which is three-quarters finished — and all $50 membership fees go to Hellas.

About 150 members have already signed up.

The club has three floors and each floor will donate $5000 a year to Hellas.

Hellas will get at least $50,000 a year from the social club.

Alexander to bid for Papaiannou

Fitzroy Alexander will try to sign Greek idol Dimitri Papaiannou next year.

Alexander president Jim Mangopoulos said this week he would try to lure Papiannou to Melbourne for a season. If that is not possible, he will be asked to join Alexander during the Greek off-season.

Mr Mangopoulos said a star like Papaiannou would ensure Alexander's success in the national league scheduled to kick off next March.

If Alexander does not succeed in signing Papainnou it will make an offer to the great Domazos or another Greek international star.

Papainnou said after his guest appearance for Alexander against Hellas Adelaide last week that he would be interested in Alexander's offer depending upon his commitments to his present club, AEK.

He said Domazos was having a few problems with Panathinaikos and could be persuaded to come to Australia.

Papaiannou, 34, has played 53 games for Greece and scored 19 goals for the national team.

His tally of 222 league goals is only two less than that of Sideris, who holds the record.

Despite his age, Papaiannou has no intentions of retiring. He keeps himself superbly fit and says he will play as long as he's good enough.

"But I don't want to be second best," he said. "When I lose my place at the top I'll give up."

When he returns to Greece he'll go to his holiday home on the beach, about 30 minutes' drive from Athens.

Dimitri Papaiannou

He'll swim, sunbake, relax and prepare himself for the coming season.

Papaiannou is not married. "I'm smart," he says. Neither has he any intention of marrying.

"I love soccer," he says, "and I'm happy when I'm training."

Papaiannou gave us some interesting information about soccer in Greece.

He said the average player in a top First Division club gets about 50,000 Drachmas a month — the equivalent of about $1200.

Grounds in Greece are not big enough, he said.

AEK's ground holds only 30,000 and is always packed.

The biggest stadium is in Salonika, but it holds only 50,000.

Asked how Alexander compared with the lower Greek First Division teams, he said:

"It's difficult to say. They have a different style and who's to know which style would triumph?"

Asked about how the Alexander v Hellas game went for him, he said: "The understanding wasn't there because this is the first time I have played with the team.

"However, everyone made the effort and the effort was tremendous. The second game will be much better."

Alexander played against Marconi of Sydney at Olympic Park last night (Tuesday) at 8 p.m. We will carry a report next week.

Papaiannou said he was extremely pleased with the reception he got from the 4000-crowd and from the Alexander club.

He was wined and dined after the game at the Brunswick restaurant of former Alexander player Taki Xanthopoulos and former Hellas and Hakoah Train to St Albans led to success for...

Rale Rasic the total professional

In the May school holidays of 1966 an idealistic and enthusiastic Yugoslav called Zvonimir Rasic was a regular passenger on the early morning train to the outer Melbourne suburb of St Albans.

From the St Albans station he'd walk the two miles to Churchill Reserve, where about 40 children waited eagerly.

Rasic was on his first coaching assignment — running a soccer school for these boys in the heart of soccer territory.

It was so successful that he came back again in the September holidays and again, the response was encouraging.

Ten years lager Rasic stands at the pinnacle of his chosen profession, but his interest in producing junior players is stronger than ever.

Together with former national team captain Johnny Warren, Rasic runs Australia's only professional soccer school at the Englefield sports complex at Dural, NSW.

Professional is the key word, for Rale Rasic is the total professional.

We'll enlarge on that later, but first let's look at what happens at the Rasic-Warren soccer school. Certainly it's a far cry from St Albans of 1966.

At the moment, the school is open from 3.30 p.m. to 5.30 p.m. every day except Fridays, and either Rasic or Warren or both are there on every day.

A successful coaching course for kids was run during the May school holidays. By November there'll be live-in accomodation for up to 80 children.

Qualified coaches assist Rasic and Warren in the programme, which is divided into three stages. They are:

STAGE ONE: (for 7 to 12 year-olds) Movement, rhythm, co-ordination, acrobatics. The aim is to develop balance and poise. A novel innovation is the use of South American rhumba music to help develop correct movement and co-ordination.

STAGE TWO (for 9 to 13-year-olds): The elements learned in Stage One are now utilised on the soccer field, mainly with passive opposition. Skills are taught and practised. The boys are allowed to express themselves without having to play matches of any competitive value. Man-to-man marking is outlawed at this stage, because it restricts freedom of expression.

STAGE THREE (for 13-16-year-olds): In this stage we get down to the nitty-gritty of training. This is the stage of conditioning, tactics, team work and so on.

Rasic hopes that by December, a new dimension will be added to the soccer school, with not only top soccer teams but also Rugby League teams using the centre for pre-season work.

A second stage will be added to the complex later, featuring squash courts and other facilities. The nine-foot pool already at the centre will later be heated for year-round use.

Rasic has observed methods used in similar schools in Spain, East Germany, Poland, the Soviet Union, Yugoslavia, West Germany and Israel. He has based his school on the best aspects of the others he has seen.

Clearly it all represents an approach as professional as you'll find in soccer anywhere in the world, and that brings us back to Rasic the total professional.

Professionalism is something Rasic prides himself on and it's a quality he is first to praise when he sees it in others. He saw this quality in Melbourne television commentator Tony Charlton and one of the first articles Rasic wrote for "Soccer Action" was headed: "Tony Charlton — a true professional."

Rasic's coaching record is proof of his professionalism. He took Australia to the World Cup finals in 1974; he was State coach of Victoria; he won the Victorian league championship with J.U.S.T. in 1969; he won the NSW grand final with St George in 1970 and Marconi in 1973; he won an international tournament with St George in 1970 and the interstate series with Marconi in 1973, and he took the Victorian under 16 team to the national championship in 1969.

This year he is again coaching Marconi after a season with Pan Hellenic, and none of Marconi's teams is out of the top four.

He's the only coach who has supplied the Press with complete pen pictures and photos of all his senior squad players.

Rasic refused to accept the job until J.U.S.T. did away with its team selection committee and gave him full control. Eventually the club relented and he lifted the team from second last into the Australian Cup.

During the World Cup he was hailed by the Press in Germany and a book published there listed him among the world's great coaches.

But Rasic has always been uncompromising in his approach to the game. To many he has appeared arrogant.

Indeed, he has a touch of arrogance about him, but self confidence is closer to the truth — confidence in the thorough knowledge he has of the game.

Rasic has been criticised often for his "defensive" approach. Certainly he used this approach in the World Cup but Marconi has scored the third highest number of goals in the NSW First Division.

His clashes with ASF officials — not any aspect of his coaching techniques — cost him the national coach's job. Now his soccer school is his major passion, and he's determined to lead Marconi into the interstate competition at the end of the year.

Rale Rasic gives Jack Reilly practice in goal during the Socceroos' stopover in Switzerland on their way to the 1974 World Cup finals in West Germany.

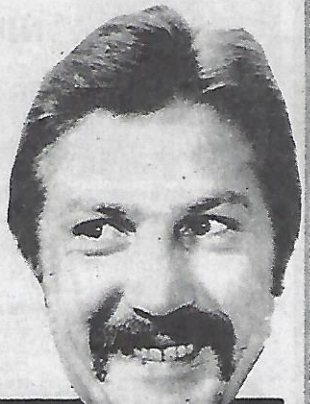
Black Lapels against Papers Tigers



KNUT WERNER

Have they lost possession of their intellectual marbles? Has reason deserted the confines of their crania?

Have their powers of logic and common sense been served with desuetude?

Hereunder lies the proof of what a fickle lot some mortals are.

What sport they give the gods in their attempt to tackle the untackable, surmount the unsurmountable, and to risk their comfortable coils to conquer the province of sublime resistance.

One minute of uncontrollable, raucous laughter may be indulged in after reading the following sentence.

The referees are going to play the members of the soccer press.

I shed tears of mirth even as I type these words of paradox.

A confrontation between the constabulary and the fourth estate of soccer!

A warring of the dark doyens of the repressive Order of the Black Lapel and the enlightening, liberal, friendly and colorfully dressed angels of the people.

We must ask, are these fools and their folly mad?

Are they unaware of the resources of the quill, ball-point, off-set and typewriter?

Are these authoritative, crazed chattels possessed with egos greater even than those of Sir Hillary's mob in trying to walk through the ionosphere to heaven?

If it is true that in ignorance lives bliss, then these misguided referees are resident in the Taj Mahal.

Think of the tremendous psychological weapons at our disposal — the fantastic amount of talent and Muhammad Ali skill in depleting and demoralising rivals before the event.

We will launch a programme of propaganda that will make playmates of Enid Blyton and Dr. Goebbels.

Firstly we have Jim Barker and Fred Villiers to use the combined readership of the Sun, Sunday Press and Observer to ridicule these pretenders in the very society of which they were a part until they decided to rise above their station and compete with the divine poets of the populace.

In work, play and recreation the referees, the most minor of minorities, will be confronted by a million people pointing and shouting, "Ha, ha, ha, ha, ha."

A million doors to be slammed in faces. A million relatives shouting from darkened passages: "Go away, there's no one home."

A million souls united by rightcousness repeating, "You can't drink here, leper."

This ostracism by pointing finger and mental spitting will reduce our opponents to quivering outcasts, eighth-class citizens cringing for our approval to make things right again, long before they meet us on the hallowed ground of Olympic Park.

And, on the day they will be oppressed by hostiles, one in voice, hollering, "The pen is mightier than the whistle, the note pad nobler than the yellow card."

Sir John Kerr will appear as the man voted most popular dinner guest compared with the loneliness of the Black Lapels.

Marilyn will exhort the wives of these arch-fiends (if indeed the wives are still living with these social pongs) to withdraw food supplies and clean socks, thus emaciating and foot-rotting them to weakness and slow movement.

Look at the deployment of our nationals.

John Carubbi will muster the entire Italian community in a blockade against these devil-worshippers, denying them access to fruit and vegetables, adding scurvy to their skinny bodies.

Soccer Action's Zika Nikolic and Peter Georgiou, superior exponents of hieroglyphics, will proceed to etch dirty and defamatory stories about the referees' families in the ethnic Press.

Because of the esoteric nature of the characters used this will leave no recourse for retaliation or legal action.

If by any chance these born losers do manage to get possession of the ball, we will have no hesitation in calling on Tony Charlton. Famous for his anecdotes and personal histories of players in his broadcasts, he will proceed to drag out a skeleton or two from the closet of those referees still standing.

This will result in the remaining few being carried off by the civilian referees in blue.

Adding weight to the soccer press team will be that myopic duo Messrs Kovac and Pollard as linesmen, for they have trouble distinguishing between off-side and the sea-side.

With George Wallace as arbitrator we can use all our studied, behind-play, dirty tactics, for it is rumoured that George has co-ordination difficulties. It seems he can't blow a whistle and walk at the same time.

Laurie Schwab is so confident that he intends to play with one camera tied behind his back.

I will attend with my own cheer squad-cum-first-aide-ladies in case of urgent massage requirements before, during or after the match. These girls are already in training.

Actually my position in the squad appears a little dubious at the moment as I failed to turn up for training last week, due to a misunderstanding.

I mistook the venue of the training session, which was at Olympic Park, for the Olympic Bar and Grill in Preston, which I attended.

Until the mistake was pointed out, I was very cheesed off that no one had arrived by 10 o'clock.

No, I'm afraid the Legion of Black Lapels stands no chance against the pure and holy Paper Tigers.

As a literate once said:

"The moving finger writes, and having writ, moves on like a gazelle down the left flank.

Franz is set to break record

Franz Beckenbauer, the most complete defender/captain soccer has had, played his 100th full international in the European championship final against Czechoslovakia last week.

Emperor Franz — jubilant after his 100th international.

The date was June 20, 1976 and the venue was Belgrade, Yugoslavia. Add that to the list of his international (right) which was compiled by "Shoot/Goal" magazine before the final.

At 30, the Bayern Munich skipper seems certain to become the world's most-capped star in the very near future.

Beckenbauer, who plays with such economy, could quite easily play for another five or six years at the highest level.

He shows no signs of slowing down and, perhaps most important, still has the same appetite for winning caps as he did as a teenager.

The Germans average around seven internationals a season and next summer plan to tour South America, vital for World Cup, 1978, preparation.

This means that given a good run free of injuries, which Beckenbauer has had all his career so far, he will overtake Pele shortly before the World Cup in Argentina.

If he does stay in the German side until he's, say, 35, Beckenbauer could bow out with something like 140 caps to his credit. And the odds on that total being beaten are very long!

The West German captain has had a big influence on his team's rise to the top.

For instance, man-for-man Holland were probably superior in the 1974 World Cup Final, but Beckenbauer rallied his players magnificently and the eventual result is history.

Beckenbauer sets the perfect example for his team-mates and they draw inspiration from his level of consistency.

Beckenbauer began his career in midfield and during the 1966 World Cup final marked Bobby Charlton, a player he loves talking about.

In Mexico, 1970, The Emperor, as he is called, was still a midfielder and it was his goal that led to England's downfall in Leon.

Soon afterwards, Beckenbauer moved back to "libero" — free defender — sweeping up behind the recognised markers.

He still comes forward with sudden spurts of speed and is, more often than not, the springboard of Germany's attacks.

Beckenbauer has seen it all before . . . but he wants to see it all again. He wants two World Cup winners' medals.

Austrian big league fails

Austria's experiment with a 10-team super league has failed, and it is clear that the season just ending will be the worst recorded in Austria. Only 7000 saw the local derby in Graz between Grazer AK and Sturm while prestige club Rapid pulled in a mere 2,300 for its game in Vienna against Austria Klagenfurt.

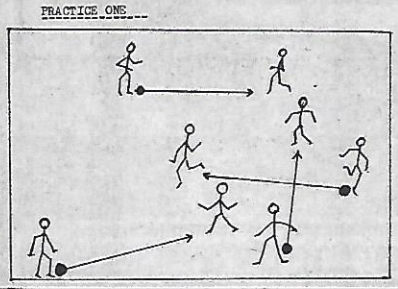
IMPROVE YOUR PLAY

with RON SMITH, Victorian Director of Coaching

PRACTICE ONE



RECEIVING THE BALL

In practice one the players work in pairs or groups of three and pass the ball to one another along the ground. When a player has the ball he must run with it until his partner calls for the ball, and then pass accurately to feet. The player receiving the pass must get in line with the ball and then move towards it. The players may be given directions in which to move as they receive the ball.

In practice two the number of players in each group will be governed by the ratio of balls to players. X4 makes a run to the left or right and calls for the ball. X1 passes the ball to X4 who moves to meet the pass. X1 runs to the back of the opposite file while X4 passes the ball to X2. X4 joins the opposite file and X2 starts the practice by passing to X5.

In practice 3, A1 passes the ball to X1 who must kick the ball forwards. X1 must then try to run around the bases B1, B2 and B3 back to his starting position, without stopping, to score a run for his team. The A team have to pass the ball to one of the bases before the X runner gets there in order to get him out. If the ball goes in the air from the X player's kick the A team may get him out in the following way. (a) By trapping the ball on the first bounce or (b) Touching the ball twice before it hits the ground. No player is allowed to handle the ball at any stage. The rules may be adapted to suit the ability of the players.

Top Victorian and Footscray JUST striker Branko Buljevic will be Startalk's guest columnist next week.

Most Victorian soccer enthusiasts believe that Buljevic should be returned to the Australian side to add goal-scoring ability and skill to the team.

Q: What was your most thrilling moment in soccer? (Question by Andrew Spakos, Chandler Rd, Noble Park, Vic.)

A: It was against Chelsea in the sixth round of the F.A. Cup about five years ago. Hull City was in the Third Division and Chelsea, which was managed by Tommy Dockerty, was near the top of the First Division. We were two goals down with five minutes to play and in that time I scored two goals to level the score.

Q: What's your favourite meal? (Question by Alan Speedie, Koornang Rd, Carnegie, Vic.)

A: I like all food and will eat anything. Roast duckling would be my favourite and I also love the king prawns they have in Australia. The food is much better out here than it is back in England.

Q: Do you have any funny habits or superstitions before a game? (Question by Sammy Pinakos, Nepean Highway, Bonbeach, Vic.)

A: In England on a Friday night I would think a lot about the game, but once the match started I was right. I have no favorite gear, I'd wear anything. In England I would wear anyone's boots, even odd pairs at times.

Q: Who do you most admire and who's had the biggest influence on your career?

A: Raich Carter was the man who signed me up for Mansfield and showed me a lot.

He was a former champion inside forward.

Terry Neill of Tottenham, a close friend of mine, has also helped.

Q: Do you play any other sport? (Question by Dick Spani, Forest Rd, Ferntree Gully, Vic.)

A: I played a lot of golf up until the last year and was off a handicap of 10. I have a boat at home and often go deep sea fishing. I did play cricket with a local team.

YOUTH SOCCER

By BOB QUIMBY, president, Australian Schools Soccer Federation.

Sixty thousand dollars—that is the amount of sponsorship the Australian Schools Soccer Federation is looking for in the next two seasons, and we are well on the way, with about $40,000 for the this season and next already committed.

☆ ☆ ☆

Coca-Cola Bottlers have agreed to sponsor the Schools National Cup, involving over 600 high schools throughout Australia. At the same time Coca-Cola will develop programmes with schools on coaching and promoting the game. Coca-Cola will be involved with schools for the two seasons for about $30,000.

☆ ☆ ☆

Schools soccer is attempting to create a "soccer environment" in schools so that boys and girls who wish to play soccer will have that opportunity. Color video tapes being produced by the school soccer body for teachers and students will go into schools early next year. AKAI have supplied the $4,000 worth of equipment, Eric Worthington has agreed to prepare the series, and funds generated by the Coca-Cola Cup will be used for distribution of the tapes.

☆ ☆ ☆

The Coca-Cola company will also assist with the planned development of girls' soccer in Sydney and Newcastle this season, and nationally in 1977.

☆ ☆ ☆

Local clubs, schools and youth groups are not being forgotten by the Schools Federation. At present, I am negotiating with a progressive company on a project which will generate funds at a local level. More about this exciting development next week.

☆ ☆ ☆

National schools u-18 championships are to be held in Newcastle this year from August 29 to September 4. Bill Turner, North NSW soccer convener, has arranged a great programme which promises to make this 10th School Interstate Championship the best yet. A crowd of 5,000 is forecast for this year's final.

☆ ☆ ☆

Interest has been expressed in televising both the National Schools U/18 C'ship and the Coca-Cola Cup matches this year. Boys at 18-19 years of age are playing great soccer and with a 4-5,000 crowd the atmosphere is exciting.

☆ ☆ ☆

Tasman Cup, as NSW's largest schools competition, involving 244 high schools, has also been mentioned as possible matches which at semi-final and final level may be televised. Certainly there is tremendous interest throughout the State, with crowds of over 2,000 turning out to round 3 matches, and with 32 matches on in round 3.

Kids: don't miss this one!

A view from the junior ranks
BY LEIF JENSEN

What a great night it will be at Olympic Park on July 7. Not one "international" but two. Great stuff!

The Victorian Press will play against the referees in the curtain raiser to Australia's clash with the Italian Army.

Thank God someone is trying to put a little fun into soccer. We could do with a lot more to promote the game.

It is obvious that the scant publicity given to soccer in the past 20 years has been a waste of time.

What we need is people with imagination and drive to get the game onto the front page of the daily newspapers.

Does it matter what we have to do to get it there?

If it is drums and clowning that's needed, why not?

We certainly need the Ron Barassis and Lou Richards of that other code if we want people to come and watch soccer.

Just think if every soccer fan could "con" one of his Aussie mates to come along to see a [illegible] might just come and see another game the following week.

Why not try to let these people in for free on their Aussie Rules membership ticket on a certain day?

We might just recruit a few more supporters who will pay the second time around.

The curtain-raiser on July 7 is a great idea. Who knows, Jim Shoulder might come away with a couple of stars for the Australian team from this lot.

The only thing I am dubious about is the duration of this game. Will they last the distance?

To find out we will all have to go and see, so I'll see you there at 6.30 p.m. sharp. I would not miss it.

PS: All you soccer boys — get dad to take you. It will be a great night.

"COACH YOURSELF FOOTBALL"

FOOTBALL COACH YOURSELF

Allen Wade — an official publication of the Football Association.

Used and recommended by Mr Ron Smith
Director of Coaching, Victorian Soccer Federation.

We often hear the expression "practice makes perfect". But how many of us have almost worked ourself to death in practice when perfection has seemed to be further away than ever?

Practice will only bring about improvement if it is of the right kind and supplemented by understanding. More than ever before, success in football demands thinking players and all round players who have mastered the games full complement of skills. The ideas which this book presents to trainers, coaches and young players are those which have been developed by the top coaches in England over the years. We know that they will stand you in good stead whatever your involvement in the game. The author, Allen Wade, is the director of Coaching of the Football Association, England.

ALTONA 2 (Hamill, Seenan), FRANKSTON CITY 0

ALTONA: Masseni, Pedley, Lord, Gramsberger, Murray, Cooper, Pocock, Hamill, Seenan, Ackers, Waters, Karbanenko.
FRANKSTON C.: Hawke, Merrick, High, Adams, Lewis, Shanks, Pryde, Savage, Buchanan, Murray, Campbell, Neri.

This game had all the hallmarks of being a classic encounter as both clubs would be spurred on by the knowledge that Green Gully had won, thus drawing level at the top with Altona and also the thought that Box Hill could be espected to win at home and thus further increase the pressure.

Frankston were unable to field Sandy Irvine who sustained a severe ankle injury against Keilor City.

Altona City included two new players — Ray Pedley, who has just arrived from the UK to teach in Altona, and George Waters, signed from St Albans.

At kick-off time the sky was full of menacing clouds, the light was poor, and it was obvious that we were in for rain.

Frankston were the first to show up when John Pryde took a corner which swung in and after eluding a frantic defence clipped the cross-bar and hit an upright before bouncing clear.

Then Pryde, from the opposite flank, crossed a good ball head high, but there was no one home.

Dennis Masseni had to dive quickly for a bad Lord passback, but Altona came forward and won a free kick.

Jim Ackers chipped the ball over the wall to the waiting Bob Pocock, but Terry Hawke was there first to smother the ball.

Then George Waters, making a satisfactory debut, showed up with a couple of deft touches, combining well with Tony Hamill.

Back at the other end Sam Murray took a prodigious swing at a ball and nearly hit the corner flag.

As the first half drew to a close, Altona had taken command with Jim Ackers, Tony Hamill and George Waters theatening danger every time they neared the box.

Despite Altona's ascendancy at the half-way mark it was Frankston who had the first opportunity after the interval, and they should have scored.

John Pryde hit a glorious free kick which Dennis Masseni was only able to push away to his left, and the ball went to big Norrie Campbell who shot hurriedly from point blank range and hit the keeper on the legs.

Altona came back into it, and Hamill missed from close range, but they were not to be denied, and their first goal came at the 49-minute mark, and it was a beauty.

Altona were awarded a free-kick, and after the Frankston wall had been set up, Bob Pocock rolled the ball back a foot to Hamill who cracked it into the top corner like a rocket.

The goal galvanised Altona, and Ackers nearly made it 2-0 with a good try and the Frankston defence had their backs to the wall.

At the 60-minute mark, Hamill was felled unceremoniously right on the edge of the box and from the resulting free-kick, Pocock hit the bar with Hawke beaten.

Frankston tried to get going through Shanks and Savage, and their attacks foundered against an uncompromising Altona defence in which Keith Murray was outstanding.

Pryde took a free kick which found Murray, but he rather gently nodded it into Massenis' arms. Then it was the turn of that man Hamill again, just firing over the bar and then unbelievably missing the far post after drawing out Hawke.

In a brief skirmish at the other end Masseni acquitted himself well, holding a hard low cross from Savage and then another from Sam Murray.

Back to the business end again, and there was Hamill ghosting round the back of the defence and hammering one with that trusty right peg of his. Hawke was thankful to push it away somehow, and the ball ricochetted off an amazed Dave Cooper before you could say goal.

Hamill had laid out Frank Peters with a similar shot the previous week, and the goalkeeper's union has probably circularised its members with the news.

It seemed inevitable that the overrun Frankston defence must concede another, and it fell to Albert Seenan who received a lovely through ball and planted it in the far corner with a veteran's economy of effort.

Altona officials are a canny lot and they accuse me of putting pressure on the team when I saw that they are favourites for the title, but the facts are inescapable — in a mediocre year Altona stand out head and shoulders above the others, and they don't look like conceding a goal, let alone losing a game. I think they'll cake-walk it.

Keilor down, Dande tops

SECOND DIVISION

Dandenong City justified my early faith in them by beating Doveton and taking over the leadership of the division.

Springvale maintained its good form by beating Keilor Austria in a hard, clean encounter.

They opened the scoring after 24 minutes when Bob Adam crossed to Jackie Gollan who headed home.

Mike Frost made it 2-0 at 52 minutes and Drago Jurcan, who had come on as a sub, scored Keilor's goal 15 minutes later.

Although the first half was all Springvale's, Keilor had plenty of chances late in the game.

Best for Springvale were the Stewart brothers, Bob Adams and Jackie Gollan.

Best for Keilor were Nestor Maneses, Bruno Aleksic and Gunter Ganglmeier.

Princes Park and Brighton shared six goals in a game of fluctuating fortunes.

Brighton scored first, then Angelo Feretis scored a hat trick to give the Park a 3-1 lead.

Brighton would not give up, however, and came back to level the scores.

Best for Princes Park were Angelo Feretis, Chris Nicolaides and an own goal by Paulos Vasilogianakos.

Their best players were Phil McDonald, Arch Shedden and Dave Gorrie.

Bayswater had a welcome change of luck, beating lacklustre Richmond 4-1 with goals by Davie Davis, Steve Atkins (2) and Mark Weston.

Bayswater, concerned by their recent efforts, had a get-together through the week and it certainly paid dividends in an improved team effort.

Steve Atkins, Bayswater's coach, played a leading role, inspiring his team and scoring twice.

In other top games Newport missed a chance to be in a three-way tie at the top by dropping a point to Moreland.

Moreland were the better team, but couldn't score.

Their best players were John Jones and John Bedford and the reserve goalkeeper, Ken Potter, who performed well in his first senior game.

FORECASTS: DANDENONG v. Bayswater; Richmond v. Princes Park (draw); BRIGHTON v. Moreland; NEWPORT v. Heidelberg; KEILOR v. Doveton; Ferntree Gully v. Springvale (draw).

The Metro Scene with LES SHORROCK

Confusion over national league

FIRST DIVISION

The decision of the ASF sub-committee for the national league to admit only three Victorian teams casts a cloud of doubt and confusion over the future plans of metro clubs.

Since the State League Management Committee in a very bitter, divisive atmosphere, refused to come to terms with reality last Monday week, it is difficult to forecast what faces First Division clubs.

Will commonsense prevail, and will two clubs be promotedc to fill the State League vacancies along with the champion team?

That is the burning question, and after the State League meeting and the half-yearly VSF meeting, it is anyone's guess as to the outcome.

Meanwhile the top First Division clubs must press on to win the league outright, and hope for a second and third prize.

The question is all the more intriguing since the First Division has never been more open, with five clubs all capable of winning the title, let alone running in the first three.

It didn't just rain on Sunday, it also rained goals, especially at Box Hill where the home side triumphed 6-3 in a game of two halves.

The home supporters must have thought it a cake-walk at half time, with Box Hill leading 4-0 thanks to a hat trick by Ray Taylor and one from his partner Serge Berardini, but Western Suburbs had other ideas.

They came out full opf fight, and soon reduced the leeway to 4-3.

At this stage Peter Craig, the Box Hill coach, replaced standin goalie Gino Jacovelli with regular goalie Mick Pearce who had been dropped, and Box Hill took charge again, running out 6-3 winners, with a goal each from Stewart McQueen and Con Patsiokas.

Best for Box Hill were Andy Bradley, Ray Taylor and Stewart McQueen.

I am almost afraid to mention that my Friends Albion Rovers drew again — as I predicted — but they nearly made a liar out of me when Gordon Bentley forced Lions' goalkeeper Frank Petersen to make a great save in the last minute and thus keep the score sheet blank.

Croydon City have had their ups and downs this season, and despite the odd up, like beating George Cross and Melbourne in the Dockerty Cup, there have been a lot of downs.

Recently, of course, they lost coach Norm Hobson to Ringwood City and John McDaid has taken over.

At the 17-minute mark Mike shot, and four minutes from half time John Howarth got the third after Keilor City's goalie had pushed out a shot from, of course, Mike Kupinic.

The half time score was 3-0 and Croydon fell away a little in the second half and let Keilor City snatch one back five minutes from the end.

All in all it was an encouraging start for John McDaid and also for Dick Ward who made his debut after being signed from Ringwood City. Best for Croydon were Mike Kupinic and Jim Wylie.

Mick "Bang-em-in" Banagan got his eleventh goal of the season and the other was an own goal.

Green Gully just about deserved to win a poor standard game, and St Albans undoubtedly missed George Waters who has gone to Altona City.

There is still no indication whether Green Gully's Dave McCurry will move to Lions and Dave is a little browned off with the situation. In fact he says he will never play for the Gully again.

Melbourne did well to beat the inconsistent Waverley City 2-0.

This week sees a couple of interesting games — Croydon taking on Green Gully in the Lions' den, and Albion journeying to Frnkston, while the Box Hill v. Melbourne game could provide some interesting soccer.

SOS to the Frankston Committee . . . If it is raining next Sunday, please either find my umbrella or get the Press box roof fixed.

FORECAST: SATURDAY: Keilor City v. ALTONA; LIONS v. Waverley (Saturday Match of the Day); Green Gully v. Croydon (draw).

SUNDAY: FRANKSTON v. Albion (Sunday Match of the Day); Melbourne v. Box Hill (draw); WESTERN SUBURBS v. St Albans.

Eltham moves closer to top

THIRD DIVISION

Port Melbourne, dropping a point at home, made the top of the table even more congested, with Eltham coming back to form with a 4-0 trouncing of Coburg.

Prahran City maintained their good form with a 2-0 win at Chelsea, where Stan Bennett scored both goals.

Chelsea's inability to score could be traced to Gordon Hay's mastery of Chelsea's best player, winger John Irvine.

Bill Radcliffe, coming back after injury, was Prahran's best, with Gordon Hay and Donovan de Cerff.

Best for Chelsea were Irvine, Lino Celan and Graham Haupt.

Park Rangers, going down at home to North Carlton, continue to disappoint and could do nothing right again.

To make matters worse, they had 'Twiggy' Hall sent off. Marcus Clarke and Brian Clark were their pick.

Deadly Dave Owen banged home a penalty to open Moorabbin's account and Peter Crawford added the second after good work by Steve Gregory.

Charlie Cassar, who was a constant menace to Moorabbin all day, scored Yallourn's goal. Steve Thomas, Crio Rosa and Dave Owen.

This week Prahran City meets Port Melbourne in a game that should be a cracker, and North Carlton take on Moorabbin in another vital game.

Eltham should survive the long journey to Yallourn for two points, and Coburg will want to get back on the winning trail against Chelsea.

FORECASTS: Yallourn v. ELTHAM; COBURG v. Chelsea; Prahran C. v. Port Melbourne (draw); BELL PARK v. Doncaster; North Carlton v. Moorabbin (draw); RINGWOOD U. v. Park Rangers.

Susz scores three

Robert Susz was North Melbourne's hero in its 5-1 defeat of top team Postal Institute in the Central Division of the Victorian District League.

It was an upset result, as North Melbourne was equal bottom of the ladder.

Susz was North's best player, scoring three goals. Carlos Gomez and John Santa-Isabel scored the other two.

Goalkeeper John Williams had a good game, as did Bob Meirose... North Melbourne's reserves drew 2-2, with both goals coming from Geoff Pollard. It was the first point Postal In-

Souths shake Sandie

Fourth Division

This division continues to be the forecaster's nightmare. In fact I picked only one result correctly last week.

Sandringham, one of Victoria's most prolific goal-scoring teams, had to be content with a 2-2 draw, taking the lead twice, but having to concede a point to a determined South Yarra.

Nigel Fletcher and Tony Antoniou scored the goals.

Caulfield, who have been putting it together well lately, had a setback at Essendon, and Ballarat dropped a point at Clayton.

With both University and Mornington having good wins, the bottom half of the table is becoming congested, and the bottom six are separated by only three points.

This week sees an important clash between Broadmeadows and Essendon, and if Broadmeadows win, they can virtually start planning for the Third Division next year.

Alan Lamb

Chief quits

Alan Lamb, president of the Northern NSW Soccer Federation, has resigned due to pressure of business.

The editorial in last week's issue of "Northern Soccer News" said in part:

"He is one of the steadfast men who supported the ASF executive against the self-interested attacks of the powerful NSW and Victorian lobbies. His loyal suport of the executive gave Northern NSW a place of esteem in the eyes of the executive and of the minor States.

"Controversy after controversy preceded his selection to the chair of the board of directors (Northern NSW). He used controversy to win the office he aspired to. He used it to get publicity for the code. It is no wonder then that his terms as president were marked by turbulence. It was the effect these affairs had on his business and on his family that eventually decided whether he would continue in office or resign.

"Prior to his stint as president, Alan had served Weston club as president for nine years and had been active on the Federation management committee. His contribution to both was as full as could be desired.

"The good thing about Alan's resignation is that he will now be in a position to spend more time with his family, especially Judy, his wife, who has sacrificed so much over the years for whatever her husband believed in."

Jim Barker (right) of the "Sun", keeps his eyes on the ball and his body behind it in this mighty clash with Tony Vrzina.

Victoria's most controversial soccer writer, Fred Villiers, has withdrawn from the Press team which will play against the referees at Olympic Park on July 7.

Laurie Schwab (Soccer Action) is about to fall on his back.

"I'm too old", said Villiers, stooping on his walking stick and snatching frantically at the hairs falling out of his grizzled beard.

But we suspect it's all an act. We've all read Fred's caustic comments about the referees and we reckon he's scared of reprisals.

Another scratching is that of Gilbert Martin, scribe for La Fiamma, who blames an injured back.

The Press v. referees game, highlight of the 1976 soccer calendar, is the curtain-raiser to the Australia v. Italian Army game on July 7.

The Press game starts at 6.30 p.m.

There was a full-scale training session for the scribes at Olympic Park last night (Tuesday) and the turn-up — 10 in all, counting Stan Stacey (Sporting Globe) who turned up late because his car broke down — was just as good as the turn-up to State team training.

What a pity there wasn't an audience.

Jim Barker (Sun) tripped and panted brilliantly, Peter Georgiou (Hellenic Herald and Soccer Action) moved with the speed and precision of an ailing geriatric, Nick Kitsakis (Neos Kosmos) dribbled with the finesse of a carthorse, Jimmy Bakatsoulas (Athletic Echo) yelled professionally and Laurie Schwab (Age and Soccer Action) was brilliant in retrieving the ball when it went out of play.

But there was trouble in the camp.

Many were openly contemptuous of the way former player Tony Vrzina (Hrvatski List) kept juggling the ball like some aging Buljevic.

Others wondered what Emmanual Milios (Ath. Echo) was trying to prove by scoring all those goals. The secret came out: He plays for North Carlton Olympic! There was talk about disqualifying him and the case will be brought to the attention of the Soccer Press Association Tribunal.

Ilias Dounoudis (Neos Kosmos) and Con Nikopoulos (Greek Times) may also be investigated. There was a bit too much class about the goalkeeping of Dounoudis and there is still speculation about whether Nikopoulos' goals were intentional or accidental.

Of course the referees didn't show up as they were supposed to. Fright has probably set in already.

NACIONALNA LIGA OD IDUCE GODINE

ZIKA NIKOLIC

U prvenstvenoj trci JUST polako, ali sigurno zaostaje za Helasom. Još nije završena ni polovina prvenstva, pa je možda rano govoriti o prvaku, ali nije zabranjeno nagađati. Helas ima ekipu sposobnu za dramatične obrte, jer igra otvoren i agresivan nogomet.

Sa JUST-om je drukčije pošto igra oprezno, pa svaki dati ili primljeni gol može da odluči utakmicu. Treba priznati da PLAVI nemaju dovoljno vremena da ui graju svoju navalu. Ako jedan navalni igrač nije povređen, onda je kažnjen, ali uvek neki nepredvidjen slučaj spreči da JUST izadje kompletan.

Inače je rezultat sa Mooroolbark-om realan, iako je JUST imao zrelije šanse u početku igre. Zanimljiv je bio sudija na ovoj utakmici. Prvo je prestrogo dosudio jedanaesterac u korist JUST-a. Zatim je, videlo se, tražio najsitniji razlog da ispravi grešku. Pružio je pet-šest sjajnih prilika Mooroolbark-u sa ivice kaznenog prostora, pa kada to nije pomoglo — svirao je i penal!

Ali i JUST je pružio mogućnost sudiji da os tvari svoju nameru, jer je bez potrebe igrao de fanzivno. Sigurno trener Ćirković nije rekao Jimmy Milisavljeviću da igra trećeg centarhalfa, kada ga je čuvao da u završnici napravi haos u protivničkom kaznenom prostoru.

MAKEDONIJA nije ni ovog puta uspela iako je bila na putu da napravi senzaciju. Kada je na poluvremenu objavljeno da vodi sa 2:0, radost medju JUST-ovcima je bila dvojaka. Prvo pobeduje bratski tim, a drugo Hellas je direktan protivnik JUST-u za prvo mesto. Medjutim radost je bila kratkog veka, jer je do kraja Hellas samleo demoralisanu Makedoniju.

NACIONALNA LIGA NA PRAGU

Vreme će pokazati ko će se više kajati, oni koji su zagrizli jabuku i pristupili Nacionalnoj ligi Australije ili oni koji se bacaju kamenjem i zlim slutnjama na nju. Pošto će JUST izgleda biti jedini predstavnik jugoslovenske zajednice u Australiji treba mu stvoriti uslove za uspešan početak. Primer koji je uprava dala pokazuje da oni koji najviše rade najviše i daju. Ali to nije dovoljno, ako se pomoć ne proširi i ne obuhvati sve gradove gde će JUST igrati kao član Nacionalne lige.

Svoje pristupanje Nacionalnoj ligi JUST namerava da označi svečanom ZABAVOM u Southern Cross Hotelu, u petak 6. 8. 1976. godine. Ta će zabava ujedno pokazati kakvu potporu JUST može očekivati od jugoslovenske zajednice, koju treba da zastupa na nogometnom polju.

AMATERSKA TAKMIČENJA

Zbog toga što je sudija (istina iz publike, jer zvanični nije došao) pokazao na belu tačku zbog igre rukom, East Carlton je napustio igralište u 78. minutu kod rezultata 2:2. Ali INTER iz Williamstown-a, koji poštuje jedino bodove stečene u borbi, nije zadovoljan ovakvim nesportskim ponašanjem. Jasno je da je protivnik pokušao pobeći od poraza. INTER je počeo jako slabo, bio je u deficitu, ali kada se razigrao lako je izjednačio. Pitanje pobede je bilo samo pitanje vremena. Sastav INTER-a: M. Karafili 6, D. Dović 6 (G. Denić 6 od 45. minuta), Z. Stefanović 7, M. Milosavljević 7, J. Serovski (Ante Cetinić 7), F. Droždak 8, S. Hrehorešin 7, D. Pantić 7, M. Ivanović 6, Z. Bartol 6, A. Dović 6.

PELISTER/Pascoe Vale — Balaclava 1:1. Od mnogo lepih šansi iskoristio je samo jednu Mirko Džanovski. Pelister još uvek računa na prvo mesto. Rezerva je pobedila sa 1:0 (prvi put u sezoni). Sastav Pelistera: Vasko Džanovski 7, Taško Džanovski 7, Vasko Tilovski 7, Mirko Stériosk i 7, Todor Baševski 7, Trajče Braoski 7, Ilija Tonoski 7, Sotir Džanovski 7, Mirko Džanovski 7, Tome Nedelkovski 7, Jane Tilovski 7.

U Cosmopolitan ligi Melbourne/SLOVENE je dobio u predzadnju utakmicu protiv Northcote sa 3:1. Sa ovom pobedom FANTI su upali u pat poziciju. Ne mogu nigde sa drugog mesta, jer trećem beže tri boda, a od prvog zaostaju za četiri. Zadnju utakmicu SLOVENE igra protiv Kensington Roversa na Holland Reserve.

INDUSTRIJSKA LIGA

PEGAZUS — Repco/Richmond 2:1. Oba gola je postigao opet Stjepan Fuš. Sastav: Savkov 7, Sabljak 8, Harris 7, Mori 7, Stanisavljević 7, Ovčar 8, Pavlović 7 (M. Franjić 7), Fuš 7, Rajher 7, F. Franjić 7, Borovnjak 7.

Tarax je igrao a Mc Call davao golove, pa se utakmica završila sa 3:0 u korist zadnjih. Sastav Tarax-a: Kazi 7, Kolarić 5, Spasojević 5, Bonovski 6, Brkić 7, V. Kostromin 6, Subotin 5, Mihoček 7, Adamović 7, Rudić 6, Jakovljevic 5.

PRVENSTVO GEELONGA

Mali Jugo-derbi izmedju Norlane/JASK-a i West Geelong/MAKEDONIJE zavrsio se nerešeno 2:2 (1:1). Utakmica je bila živa, uzbudljiva i promenljiva, a rezultat je realan. Makedonija je povela u 1. minutu iz penala, a JASK je izjednačio u 15. preko odličnog Mileta Stojanova. U 75. minutu Makedonija opet vodi sa 2:1, a izvrsni Stojanov u 79. postavlja konačan rezultat. Sastav: Major 9, Vasilevski 7, Konevski 6, (Dean), Džin 8, Bradonjić 8, Nesteroski 7, Gajić 7, Stojanov 9, Stojanov 9, Marković 7 (Jovanov), Kevelj 7. Nismo dobili sastav Makedonije. North Geelong — Croatia je imala slobodan dan, ali je ipak zadržala prvo mjesto na tabeli.

U nedelju 10. jula JASK održava godišnji BAL u Geelongu.

HAJDUK I PARTIZAN RAME UZ RAME

Rezultati 31. kola:

HAJDUK — VARDAR 2:0. Strelci: Zungul i Jerković.

PARTIZAN — VOJVODINA 5:1. Strelci: Bjekovic 3, Zavišić i Vukotić za Partizan, Vučković i Vukašinović za Vojvodinu.

RADNIČKI (K) — SARAJEVO 0:1

ZVEZDA — VELEŽ 1:0. Strelac: Filipović.

ŽELJEZNIČAR — BUDUĆNOST 2:0.

RADNIČKI (Niš) — OLIMPIJA 2:0

RIJEKA — DINAMO 0:0

BORAC — BEOGRAD 1:1

ČELIK — SLOBODA 3:4

Radnički iz Kragujevca definitivno napušta prvu ligu na kraju ove sezone, ali se do zadnjeg kola neće znati njegov saputnik.

Pošto u ovu subotu odlazim na proslavu 200. godišnjice Sjedinjenih Američkih Drpijske Igre u Montreal kao dopisnik „Novosti" možda će „Jugoslovenska scena prestati da izlazi jedno vreme. Pokušaću da pronadjem zamenika, a ako to bude nemoguće, onda dovidjenja do mog povratka.

Peter Ollerton of Hellas gets his lead to the ball as Makedonia players Frank Campbell (No. 10) and Jim McCracken (No. 5) converge on him.

Bravo Lynn!

RINGWOOD 2 (Lynn 41st., 75th.)
SUNSHINE 1 (Kokoska 20th.)

RINGWOOD: van Egmond; Adams, Garthwaite, Plumb, Bray; O'Callaghan, Kos (sub. Cankovic 40th.), Luyten; Williamson, Lynn, Kent.
SUNSHINE: Johnson; Lewis, Kokoska, Anderson, Petrov; Laing, McCarthy, Howe; Cumming, Pocock, McRobert (injured, sub. Smith 63rd.)

Goal-poacher Mike Lynn was the difference between Ringwood and Sunshine. Neither team did much to enthuse the small crowd, but at least Lynn was there to take his chances when they came.

He deserves special credit because Steve Kokoska certainly didn't make it easy for him, shadowing him closely throughout the game.

While Kokoska watched Lynn, Ian McCarthy had a running battle with Cris Kent.

The result of it all was that John O'Callaghan had more room than usual in midfield, and he relished it.

Sunshine took the lead in the 20th. minute with a header by Kokoska after a free kick by McCarthy.

Four minutes later Ringwood had its first dangerous shot. David Garthwaite hit it from 20 metres but goalkeeper Billy Johnson saved well.

Then Garthwaite beat Johnson with a header after a corner but Chris Petrov was on the line to head clear.

Ringwood coach Norm Hobson replaced Aad Kos with Joe Cankovic in the 40th. minute and in the 41st.

Lynn equalised with a header that trickled over the goal line with men from both sides scrambling to get at the ball.

Sunshine's performance in the first 30 minutes of the second half was probably its worst of the season.

Blaming it on the absence of Kaz Piotrowski (injured) and Frank Mussel (working) would hardly be relevant because Ringwood was also missing two men — Bobby Smith and Paul Holding.

In the 59th minute, John Luyten speared a long angled ball to the wing for Cankoxic to run onto, and hit the side netting from a good scoring position.

Then came Lynn's winning goal — and what a beauty it was. He scored it with a spectacular diving header and hurt himself in the process.

However, he was back in the fray as good as new after treatment on the touchline.

Laurie Smith, who had replaced injured Jim McRobert, faced an open goal in the 80th. minute, but missed altogether.

Sunshine was throwing all it had into attack. With a minute to go, Ray Pocock had goalkeeper Nick van Egmond beaten after a McCarthy cross, but Richard Plumb cleared off the line.

Sunshine's new sweeper Dave Anderson, who had arrived from Hong Kong at dawn, showed touches of class and will be valuable in the remaining nine games he is to play with the club.

Little Tommy Cumming was a good player for Sunshine, although John Bray kept a lot of pressure on him.

Cumming was the only forward willing to have a go and take on his man, and he will be sorely missed if, as is expected, he returns to Scotland in a few weeks.

Watertight

SLAVIA 1 (Gilder) HAKOAH 0

SLAVIA: Pinakos, Owens, O'Reilly, Tansey, Thompson, Train, Symington, McFarlane, Patton (Liu), Gilder, Ripley.
HAKOAH: O'Hara, Hammond, Durand, Stewart, Baker, Dosen, Fraser, Blair, Wallace, Gadaby, Roberts (Valli).

Slavia used its biggest asset — a brilliant and watertight defence — to full advantage and smothered disappointing Hakoah on Saturday.

Hakoah, despite having as much use of the ball, never looked likely to down its more purposeful and systematic opponents.

Australian sweeper Jim Tansey and Jim O'Reilly formed a team that could not be passed.

The two points Slavia collected from the match now make the side a big threat to the final four.

In 10 matches this season Slavia has had only five goals booted against it, but its downfall has been a lack of scoring ability.

Things could not be in a worse state at Hakoah. It must now try and settle down after the recent bust-up in administration.

Hakoah was best served by Jean Durand, who played a sterling game for his club.

The match was not of a good spectator standard, but then again, these two teams are not renowned for playing a thrilling style of game.

Slavia coach Ken Kontra said: "I was happy because i another win, but we had the opportunity to score more goals.

"At no stage did we look like losing the match.

"Ripley and Gilder are two forwards who will improve greatly, as they have been here for only a few weeks and have not played since April.

"I am happy at the moment, as the side is improving.

"We have the best defence in the league and the forwards are now starting to do a little more.

"On Friday night we play Alexander and this will be a big test, but I believe we can get the two points.

Hakoah secretary Kurt Defris said: "We had 80 per cent of the play, but had the old sickness again, as we couldn't score.

"Their defence was outstanding and we couldn't get anything past.

"But if we can't score then we can't win."

JOHANNESBURG — South African soccer authorities have invited FIFA to send a representative to supervise the introduction of non-racial administration of the game in South Africa.

A FIFA delegation that visited South Africa three months ago recommended a continuation of South Africa's existing suspension but not expulsion from the world body. — AAP-Reuter

AND NOW FOR THE TITLE!

The Victorian under 16 side became favorite to win this year's Australian championship with a dashing 2-1 win over Metropolitan League team Frankston City at Olympic Park last Wednesday night.

The Australian championship will be held at HMAS Cerberus, Crib Point, during the September school holidays.

Victoria — under the guidance of coach Bill Curran — won the title in 1972 and 1974 and was runner-up last year.

Last Wednesday's match was a curtain raiser to the all-Greek clash between Melbourne club Alexander and Adelaide Hellas.

The Victorian lads turned on a champagne performance of soccer before a big crowd to completely outclass Frankston and cause a shock result.

He added: "The boys played well and deserved their win.

"They kept plugging away, going in, and their persistence was rewarded.

"We played the game without Terry Hawke, Ernie Merrick and Sandy Irvine and Ian Shanks went off at half time.

He scored Frankston's and through two silly mistakes enabled the schoolboys to score their two goals.

Victoria's goals came from Eddy Krmcevic of Essendon Lions and John Chritoudias of Western Suburbs.

Other players to show out were Colin Allison, son of Melbourne coach Bill, Coburg's Chris Christopoulos and goalkeeper Angelo Melitis of Polonia.

Coach Bill Curran said: "It was the first real trial by the boys and they turned in a great performance.

"The squad for the championships has been narrowed down to 18 and we'll be starting serious training shortly.

"The boys pushed the ball around and did what I told them to do.

"I'd like to have a few more games at Olympic Park before the championship starts."

PETER GEORGIOU of the 'Hellenic Herald'

Ἡ ποιότητα τῶν τελευταίων ἀγώνων οἱ ὁποῖοι ἀναμεταδίδονται ἀπὸ τὴν τηλεόραση κάθε Σάββατο, ἔχει κάνει πολλοὺς νὰ διερωτῶνται ἂν πράγματι ἡ ἀναμετάδοση βοηθᾶ ἢ καταστρέφει τὴν προσπάθεια τῆς προβολῆς τοῦ ποδοσφαίρου σ' αὐτὴν τὴν χώρα!

Δὲν πρόκειται νὰ ἀναφέρω συγκεκριμένους ἀγῶνες, ὅπου ἡ κακὴ ποιότητα καὶ οἱ δεκαπέντε φίλαθλοι συναγωνίζονται τὸ ἕνα τὸ ἄλλο, διότι ἁπλούστατα ὅλοι παρουσιάζουν τὴν ἴδια εἰκόνα. Ἔχουμε ὅμως φθάσει στὸ σημεῖο νὰ βλέπουμε ἀποκλειστικὰ ἄσχημους ἀγῶνες ἀπὸ τὴν τηλεόραση! Ὅσοι φίλαθλοι δὲν μποροῦν νὰ βρεθοῦν στὸ γήπεδο τὴν Κυριακή, εἶναι ὑποχρεωμένοι νὰ ὑπο φέρουν ποδοσφαιρικά, βλέποντας ἕνα θέαμα ποὺ κάθε ἄλλο παρὰ σχέση μὲ τὸ ποδόσφαιρο ἔχει.

Εἶναι ὑποχρεωμένοι ν' ἀκοῦν τοὺς βαριεστημένους σχολιαστὲς νὰ προσπαθοῦν νὰ βώσουν κάποιο ξύπνημα στὴν νυσταλέα ἀτμόσφαιρα ἡ ὁποία ὑπάρχει στὸ σαλόνι τοῦ θεατῆ καὶ ποὺ δὲν διαφέρει καθόλου ἀπὸ αὐτὴ ποὺ ὑπάρχει μέσα στὸν ἀγωνιστικὸ χῶρο.

Ἕνας φίλαθλος, τοῦ ὁποίου ἡ ἡλικία δὲν ἐπιτρέπει νὰ πηγαίνει στὸ γήπεδο, μοῦ δήλωσε ὅτι ξέρει τὰ πάντα, σχετικὰ μὲ τὴ καρριέρα τῶν ποδοσφαιριστῶν τῆς Σλάβια! Καὶ αὐτὸ διότι εἶναι ἡ ὁμάδα ποὺ ἔχει ἐμφανισθῆ στὴν τηλεόραση τὶς περισσότερες φορές. Ὁ ἴδιος φίλαθλος ἐκδηλώνει τὴν ἐπιθυμία νὰ δῆ καὶ τὶς μεγάλες ὁμάδες στὸ TI—BI, καὶ δὲν τὸν ἐνδιαφέρει ποιὰ μέρα θὰ εἶναι.

Σ' αὐτὸ μπορεῖ νὰ συμφωνήσουν καὶ οἱ ὑπόλοιποι φίλαθλοι, ἀλλὰ αὐτοὶ οἱ ὁποῖοι μποροῦν νὰ ἐξυπηρετήσουν καλύτερα τοὺς φιλάθλους, διαφωνοῦν. Σπάνια τὰ μεγάλα σωματεῖα παίζουν Σάββατο, ἀλλὰ καὶ ὅταν παίζουν, ὁ ἀγώνας δὲν ἀναμεταδίδεται ἀπὸ τὴν τηλεόραση γιὰ εὐνόητους λόγους.

Οἱ ὑπεύθυνοι δηλώνουν ὅτι θέλουν νὰ δείχνουν κόσμο. Ὅλοι ὅμως γνωρίζουν ὅτι τὸ Σάββατο γιὰ πολλούς, εἶναι ἐργάσιμη μέρα καὶ εἶναι δύσκολο νὰ βροῦν μεγάλο ἀριθμὸ φιλάθλων καὶ μάλιστα μὲ ὁμάδες ὅπως ἡ Πολώνια καὶ ἡ Σλάβια.

Ὁ κόσμος ὑπάρχει, ἀλλὰ τὴν Κυριακή! Καὶ μόνο ἡ ἀναμετάδοση τῶν ἀγώνων τῆς Κυριακῆς θὰ διαφημίση καλύτερα τὸ ποδόσφαιρο. Ξέρω ὅτι θὰ ξεσηκωθοῦν τὰ σωματεῖα μ' αὐτὴ τὴν ἰδέα, ἀλλὰ δὲν εἶναι ἀπόλυτη ἀνάγκη νὰ γίνη κατ' εὐθεῖαν ἀναμετάδοση.

Μπορεῖ νὰ γίνη μὲ τὸν ἴδιο τρόπο ποὺ γίνεται τὸ Αὐστραλέζικο φουτμπόλ. Ἐπαναλήψη τοῦ ἀγῶνος τὸ ἴδιο βράδυ ἀπὸ τὸ TI - BI. Νομίζω ὅτι οἱ φίλαθλοι θὰ τὸ βροῦν προτιμότερο ἀπὸ τὴν κατ' εὐθεῖαν ἀναμετάδοση τοῦ Σαββάτου.

Μποροῦν δὲ οἱ ὑπεύθυνοι νὰ βροῦν τὸν καλύτερο τρόπο γιὰ τὴν λύση τοῦ προβλήματος — Τηλεόραση. Ἂς μὴ ξεχνοῦν ὅτι οἱ τίτλοι ποὺ κατέχουν στὴν Ὁμοσπονδία δὲν δόθηκαν μόνο γιὰ νὰ στολίζουν τὶς πόρτες τῶν γραφείων τους καὶ τὶς στῆλες τῶν ἐφημερίδων! Ἀπαιτοῦν σκληρὴ καὶ ὑπεύθυνη δουλειὰ γιὰ τὴν προβολὴ τοῦ ποδοσφαίρου στὴν Αὐστραλία. Μιὰ καλὰ ὀργανωμένη προβολή, ποὺ σκοπὸ ἔχει τὴν προσέλκυση τῶν φιλάθλων στὰ γήπεδα, διότι μέχρι τώρα, κάθε Σάββατο, αὐτὸ ποὺ προβάλλεται δὲν εἶναι τὸ ποδόσφαιρο, ἀλλὰ τὸ ρέστωραν τοῦ σχολιασμοῦ τῆς τηλεοράσεως, καὶ ἡ ἱστορία τῆς καρριέρας τῶν ποδοσφαιριστῶν. Καὶ αὐτὸ διότι οἱ ἀγῶνες τοῦ Σαββάτου δὲν ἔχουν τίποτε ἄλλο νὰ προσφέρουν!

SANDY IS BACK WITH SAINTS

PETER SWEENEY looks at the Victorian Metropolitan, Provisional and District Leagues.

Sandy Henderson, who earlier resigned as coach of State League club Hakoah, is now coaching his former side St Albans.

Henderson, who was in charge of St Albans four years ago, takes over from Matt Landherr, who had been filling in while the club looked for a permanent coach.

However, Henderson cannot play for St Albans, as Hakoah won't agree to clearing him as a player.

St Albans will soon have tall Steve Brown back in its side, as he is returning to the club from Perth.

George Waters has left St Albans and joined neighbouring Altona.

Hompart is new coach

John Hompart is the new coach of Keilor Austria.

He replaces Milan Lukic who has returned to Yugoslavia.

Hompart is a physical education teacher at St Albans technical school and coaches one of the club's junior sides.

He was a good player with the second eleven but didn't play in the senior side because of his age.

Club official Fred Csar said: It's a good atmosphere at the club.

"The boys really like John and his coaching methods.

"He is an intelligent person who has been interested in the club for a long time."

Big scores by Geelong

Geelong thrashed Carlton 10-1 a fortnight ago, and the win is rated as second behind the club's 15-0 victory over Port Melbourne some years back.

The pattern for the first XI showing top form was set earlier in the day when the reserve team won 7-0.

The win lifted the side into fourth position.

Good players for Geelong in this encounter were Andy McKim, Billy Munro, Norm Cooper, Norm McKee, "Super Max" and "Wings".

The depth of the Geelong club was shown when the side beat third division Metropolitan club Ringwood United 6-0 in the Harry Armstrong Cup.

Geelong did not score until the 15-minute mark in the second half, but from that point on it was just a formality.

From here on in Geelong will be hard to beat in the Cup series.

The best and fairest dinner dance will be held at Berkeley Lodge on Friday September 24.

Tickets cost $14 and can be obtained by contacting Dennis Carter.

They'll meet Tasmania

Metropolitan first division club Frankston will probably play the Tasmanian representative team in October.

Frankston will visit Tasmania on its annual trip away.

Club officials are negotiating with the Tasmanian Soccer Federation.

The club's player committee is working overtime in an effort to raise enough funds to take the whole senior squad away, as the firsts team will have its holiday sponsored.

Sandy Henderson

Coming social activities are a rock and roll night at the clubrooms on Friday, July 2, a visit to the "Rocky Horror Show" on Saturday, July 17, and a smorgasbord dance on Saturday, August 14.

Further information can be obtained by phoning organiser Bill Murray on 51 0446 or 95 6433.

CUP DRAW

The draw for the preliminary and 1st rounds of the Victorian Federation Cup to be played at the end of the Metropolitan League championship season is:

Preliminary Round: Mornington v Brighton; Dandenong v Prahran; Springvale v Park Rangers; Moorabbin v Green Gully; Melbourne v Keilor; Ferntree Gully v Western Suburbs; Croydon v Doncaster Rovers; Monash University v Moreland; Essendon Lions v Bell Park.

1st ROUND: Essendon Lions or Bell Park v Corio; Ferntree Gully or Western Suburbs v Clayton; North Carlton v Doveton; Atona v Rosebud; Mornington or Brighton v Chelsea; Springvale or Park Rangers v Bayswater; Monash University or Moreland v Dandenong or Prahran; Ringwood United v Port Melbourne; South Yarra v Newport; University v Frankston; Moorabbin or Green Gully v Sandringham; Croydon or Doncaster Rovers v Albion Robers; Essendon v Coburg.

'Bud boys do well

The Rosebud club has a sound future if the ability displayed in its junior sides is any indication.

Three sides — the under 9's, 11's and 14's — have been performing well.

The under nine match with Cranbourne recently ended in a scoreless draw.

Other good players were Michael Waugh, Craig Newton and Vincent Mitchell.

The under 11 side went down to Mornington, but it was far from disgraced. David Mathison scored the goal, and three beautiful shots just missed the net.

Rohan White, Simon Dickson and Ken Bendle all did well for Rosebud, in a team that doesn't know how to give in.

A tiring journey to Overport did not dent the enthusiasm of the under 14 team, and the boys returned with a 3-2 win.

New goalie Ian Taylor did a fantastic job and capped it off with a superb save from a penal-

Coaching clinics

A five-week coaching clinic will begin soon in the Frankston and Mornington Peninsula area.

The clinics will start on Wednesday, July 14, and go to August 11.

They have been organised by the Victorian Soccer Coaches Federation.

The clinics will tutor in the basic skills, techniques and methods of soccer,

They are primarily designed for people interested in coaching.
